Petition calls for wet-dry election

ACCEPTS PETITION CALLING FOR ELECTION... Elba Mayor Bob English looks over a petition presented at the Monday meeting of the Elba City Council calling for an election to allow the citizens of Elba to vote on whether or not it should be legal to sell alcohol within the city limits. The city clerk will purge the list to insure all signatures are those of qualified city voters, and if the list is valid, the election could take place at the November general election. Presenting the petition was Charlie Zimmerman.

The Elba City Council met Monday at 5 p.m. All members were present and voting. The meeting was opened with a prayer by council member Jack Prescott.

Police Chief John White reported all was routine. They had one drunk at the ballgame Friday night, but since the county jail was full, they escorted him home. White and Mayor Bob English explained to the council that in the new city budget, they were eliminating the position of investigator. This position has been empty since the resignation of the last person to serve in that slot. Also White reported that Freddie Hanchey has returned to the force as a patrolman.

Bids were opened from private contractors on the pickup of garbage and trash within the city. There were three bidders submitting envelopes; however, one noted it wasn't practical for them to participate at this time and submitted a "No Bid." Two other firms did bid. They were Waste-Away and Scientific Industries. Waste-Away, with offices in Montgomery and Dothan, entered a bid price of $137.40 for all residential and small commercial. This averaged out to a cost of $6.88 per unit, per month. They also guaranteed they would charge no more than $1.75 per cubic yard of the 20 large commercial customers in Elba. The one alternate in the bidding was with Elba furnishing a dry landfill within the city limits. This is for trash. Waste-Away could cut $7,462 from their annual bid with this alternate.

Scientific Industries bid $216,091.98 total for the residential and small commercial accounts, and a $3.00 per cubic yard maximum for commercial accounts. Their alternate bid for the dry landfill being furnished by the City of Elba would save Elba $4363.02.

Mayor Bob English recommended the council take the bids under advisement and study them until Thursday when they will convene in a special meeting to either select a contractor, reject all bids and readvertise or decide to continue doing the job with city employees as in the past.

Contracting out the project will eliminate the jobs of ten city employees. Both contractors have said they will use any who are needed and quality for employment with their firm. Indications are that all ten will not be needed by the private contractor, but no number has been announced.

A committee of Council members, Frances Williams, John W. Sharpless and Jack Prescott, will review the bids prior to the 4:30 Thursday meeting.

A stack of petitions calling for a vote on the wet-dry issue in Elba was presented to the city council by local citizen Charles Zimmerman. The lists contained 485 names, according to statements from Zimmerman to the city council. Mayor Bob English noted that there were 1062 voters who cast their vote in the last city election and the law requires 25 percent of that number must sign a petition to vote on the legal sales of liquor.

The citizens of Elba may vote on the matter following the passage of a law in the Alabama legislature allowing municipal option in counties with towns of more than 6,000 population.

If and when any town of more than 6,000 approve such sales, then cities with a population of more than 4,000 may also hold such a vote. Enterprise voted to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages immediately following passage of that law. This allowed Elba citizens to do the same.

English explained that the city clerk must check and certify the names to insure there are 266 Elba voters on the list. This must be done within the next week, as the time is short for getting on the November 4 ballot. The law doesn't allow for a special election on this matter and it must be held with a general election. If approved, it will simply read: "Do you favor the legal sale and distribution of alcoholic beverages in this municipality?" Voters will either pull the yes lever or the no lever. Then if approved, the city council will set up guidelines to control the sale of the alcoholic beverages.

English reported the last sales tax check was for $33,946. He also promised to submit a proposed budget to the council within the next few days, noting the time was drawing close to adopt the budget and a special meeting was possible to adopt this budget.

County forestry committee named tops in district 2

The Coffee County Forestry Planning Committee was named the most outstanding in district 2 at the Third Alabama Landowner and TREASURER Forest Conference in Montgomery on September 11.

The forestry planning committee in each county is made up of individuals with forestry interests, including governmental agencies, consulting foresters, forest industry, and landowners. These counties are nominated on a statewide basis, with the Alabama Forestry Planning Committee selecting the best of the county forestry planning committees in each of three districts across the state. The most outstanding of these district winners is selected state winner. Factors considered in the selection process included the committee's organization, cooperation in forest management demonstrations, TREASURE Forest and Tree Farm activities, support of youth forestry programs, and information and education activities.

The other district winners were the Autauga County Forestry Planning Committee in district 3, and the Walker County Forestry Planning Committee in district 1.

Commission cuts $338,000 from county budget

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, Sept. 22, at the courthouse in Elba and approved a balanced budget for the 1987 fiscal year that included cutbacks totaling almost $350,000.

Commissioner Billy Eagerton reported that the commission had put in a lot of long hours working on the budget and had a lot of problems working out a budget that everyone in the county could live with and that the county could afford. Eagerton stated several items were cut from this year's budget, including commissioners' trips to state and national conventions, special appropriations to outside agencies and courthouse renovation. The budget also failed to include any pay raises for any county employees, an item all commissioners felt was needed, but could not be granted due to a serious cutback in state and federal funding.

"The overall budget totals $338,663 less than last year," stated Eagerton, "and it is a balanced budget. We don't plan to borrow any money to supplement the budget and all department heads will have to work hard to make sure they stay within their budgets because there won't be any bailing them out."

Monday's meeting began at 9 a.m., with all commissioners present, and the initial order of business was to open a number of bids on various items.

Five insurance agencies entered proposals for the county's health insurance coverage, including Golden Rule HumanaCare Plus, Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Underwriters Services of Alabama and the Alabama Association of County Commissioners. The commission listened to two presentations before agreeing to table the awarding of the bid until Monday, Sept. 29, to allow all bidders an opportunity to present a verbal explanation of their policies.

Tractor Equipment Co. and Burford Equipment Co. were the two bidders on a landfill compactor to be used at the county landfill, and the contract went to Burford with a low bid of $113,677.

Only two of the county's banks offered proposals for being named county depository of funds and after discussing each proposal the SouthTrust Bank of Coffee County was named depository of all county funds for the coming year.

While the commission agreed that all county funds would be placed at SouthTrust, a continuing problem of where the county revenue commissioner places the funds from his office was again hotly debated. Revenue Commissioner Ronnie Burns, although an elected official of the county, who handles county tax revenue, has refused in the past to use the bank designated as the county depository, and after being called Monday reportedly told the commission he would continue to place the funds from his office where he pleased and not comply with the wishes of the commission.

Burns received a controversial attorney general's opinion several years ago that stated he did not have to follow the wishes of the commission concerning the placement of funds from his office, and since he reportedly banked with The Peoples Bank of Elba.

The commission was unanimous in its opinion that Burns should place all funds from his office in the county depository and stated it was costing the taxpayers of the county money for Burns to place funds in a bank that may not offer the advantages of the bank chosen by the commission.

The commission discussed the placement of county funds at length and decided to again seek Burns' cooperation in the matter.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission: ***authorized Commission Chairman Marion Brunson to sign all paperwork concerned with the extension of the water lines of the South Crenshaw County Water Authority; ***disqualified the bid of Mid-South Machinery on the compactor because the bid was received 25 minutes late; ***agreed to send out bids on a rotary boom cutter and on numerous items for the highway department; ***agreed to do road work on a rural road near Ashby and work at the New Hope Cemetery involving water problems; ***adopted a resolution exempting CONAGRA from county taxes for a period of 10 years on scheduled improvements costing $1 million (providing tax savings of $3,000 annually); ***was told that a hearing on the condemnation of the Boyd property would be held on Oct. 6; ***agreed to present a resolution to Sara Hutchinson upon her retirement after 30 years of service with the county extension office; ***heard that renovation work would be done on the circuit clerk's office within the month of October, using $40,000 in state funds; ***was told that the elevator at the Elba courthouse would be operational this week; ***was told the county had been selected to be the pilot county in a planned statewide computer service.

Georgia man enters guilty plea

Adams and Timothy David Stubbs, age 17, of Manchester, Ga., were arrested in connection with the murder on August 2, 1985, and after their arrest the two confessed to killing Nelson and stated they had been hired to do the killing by Easton Darris Mullis, age 43, of Harris County, Ga., for $10,000. According to testimony at a preliminary hearing on Sept. 20, 1985, Mullis' ex-wife, Virginia, had been living with Nelson at the time of the murder.

Richard Steven Adams, age 18, of Tolbert County, Ga., entered the guilty plea on Tuesday, Sept. 23, and the court accepted the plea on the condition that Adams testify against his two alleged accomplices in the murder-for-hire scheme. In making the plea, Adams agreed to dismiss his appeal of his certification, waive application for treatment as a youthful offender and testify against his co-defendants in the case.

The district attorney's office recommended Adams receive a 25-year prison sentence for his part in the alleged murder, however, acceptance of the recommendation was postponed until a sentencing hearing could be held.

Adams was one of three Georgia men indicted by the Coffee County Grand Jury in October of 1985 in connection with the abduction, robbery and murder of James Edward Nelson, age 55, of the Glenwood Community. Nelson had been abducted by two apparently masked men at his home during the early morning hours of July 25, 1985, after the men reportedly broke into the rural residence and demanded money. Nelson's body was found that same day beneath the Conecuh County bridge, about six miles from his home, and it was determined that Nelson had been shot in the head.

Dossey seeks new trial

A rural Crenshaw County man sentenced to 99-years in prison for murdering his wife returned to court on Monday, Sept. 22, in an attempt to prove that his wife's careless handling of a gun could have been the actual cause of death.

Roy Loid Dossey, age 35, a former helicopter pilot, was convicted in March, 1985 for the shooting death of his wife, Mary Dossey, during a hunting trip on Jan. 1, 1984 near the Dossey home in the Henderson Community.

Dossey filed a motion with Judge Arthur Gamble claiming that his attorney, Garth Lindsey, was ineffective in the original trial because he did not attempt to move the trial from Crenshaw County and did not use information about how Mrs. Dossey handled firearms. Dossey told the court that he had informed Lindsey of remarks made by neighbors concerning his wife's carelessness with guns, but stated that Lindsey indicated the information was not important.

Lindsey, who took the stand for almost an hour of testimony at Monday's hearing, told the court that the reports of Mrs. Dossey's carelessness with guns was just hearsay and defended his decision not to move the trial out of Crenshaw County because "if he had any friends it would be in Coffee County."

When asked by Dossey's new attorney, Mike Blalock, if Mrs. Dossey's death could have been accidentally, Lindsey reportedly answered loudly "There ain't no way."

Dossey remains a suspect in the drowning death of his 9-year old daughter, Mary Marcelle Dossey, who drowned in a neighbor's pool near the Dossey house two years prior to Mrs. Dossey's death.

READY FOR TRIAL RUN... Probate Judge Marion Brunson and county maintenance supervisor John Flowers step inside the new elevator at the Elba courthouse as Jimmy Foley prepares to push the button to see if the newly installed elevator is operational. The elevator is expected to be ready for the public this week and is located at the main entrance to the courthouse on the building's west side. Funds for the elevator were received from the state and the elevator was installed to provide access to the upstairs courtrooms for the elderly and handicapped.

COLORED BACKGROUND

Brainstorms

With Ferrin Cox

Miss America, Kelley Cash of Tennessee, spoke out this week on beauty contests... or more accurately, on those who enter them. We sure hate to get a fuss going, so we will just present her comments as best we can without our editorial comments: "I can't say pageants for children are wrong, but I think you have to be so cautious," she said in Maine this week. "What happens is that some of them are what we call 'pageant professionals' and that is it." She never entered a beauty pageant as a teenager. She noted in her comments that girls who concentrate on them throughout childhood "are out of focus."

Bo Jackson says he is happy playing baseball with the Kansas City Royals. He got far less money than he would have gotten in football, but life is a bit easier, we are sure. He is apparently blessed with the potential to be a great star on the diamond just as he was on the gridiron. Last week Bo hit a record-breaking home run in the Royals' home park. We wish him luck.

A bunch of alleged Mafia leaders are on trial in New York in a move touted to break up the "boss-of-bosses" ties that hook all organized crime under one rather loose-knit organization. If they are guilty, we want them jailed. However, judging from past success stories, we kinda doubt the government has the horses to make it all stick. The record books show that as testifying time gets closer, witnesses get bad cases of memory losses... or just disappear.

There is a growing possibility that Jim Folsom Jr. will be the next governor of Alabama. With the continuing court battle over which candidate is the real Democratic nominee, the federal courts may be forced to postpone the November election for governor in Alabama. With "Little Jim" a strong favorite to win the race for lieutenant governor, he could sit as governor until a special election could be held. We can't discount anything these days, judging from all the unusual things happening in the race, up to and including this week. We don't know if he is ready to be governor yet, but considering our disgust with the happenings in the race thus far, we are ready for him to take his seat in that big chair.

The wet-dry petition was presented to the city council Monday night as predicted. The question now is if there will be enough names. They must get 260 out of the 485. We looked at several sheets and saw a lot of people from Kinston and Jack and other "out-of-Elba areas" signed up. These must be law be discounted as they are not voters of Elba. Also, if the name isn't the same as on the voter registration list, it must be removed. We will have a next week, because to get on the November ballot, advertising in The Elba Clipper must begin next week.

There have already been statements about this newspaper publishing the names of those who signed the petition for the wet-dry vote. However, you can take it straight... we will not be publishing these names or next time. The law doesn't require the city to publish those names and we personally are not interested. That story has been circulating around since I was a child, but never have we seen a newspaper do that in Alabama. We understand City Hall has had a number of calls on this and so has our office. Forget it -- we ain't gonna do it.

Also, we need to note that we will limit the number of Letters-to-the-Editor on this matter. While we hope to give fair reporting on both sides, there would be little purpose served if a group started sending in mimeographed copies of the same letter with different signatures.

Kinston Homecoming Parade

To Be Held Friday

Kinston schools will hold their homecoming parade tomorrow (Friday), Sept. 26, beginning at 1:30 p.m. to kick off homecoming activities.

At 4 p.m. all alumni will be honored with a reception in the new Home Economics complex.

The annual alumni banquet, presided over by president Martha Ann Teel, will be held in the luncheon room at 6, at which time the classes of '36, '46, '56, '66, '76 and '86 will be honored.

At 7:30 p.m. the Kinston Bulldogs will take on G.W. Long on the football field.

Half-time activities will feature the homecoming court, with queen Laura Weeks escorted by Johnny Watson, first senior attendant Donna Farris, escorted by Richie Cosby; second senior attendant is Michelle Cook, escorted by Casey Patterson.

Junior attendant is Lynn Kelley, escorted by Dewayne Davis; sophomore attendant is Davina Sutherland, escorted by Broggers.

Senior ushers will be Chris Free and Mickal Farris. Flower girl is Nicole Blunt and crown bearer is Travis Jacobs.

Mr. Lavon Cain, principal at KHS, will crown the queen during ceremonies and a dance will follow the game. Everyone is invited to attend.

Elba PTO To Meet

In This Country Blood

Vessel Diseases

Aren't Deadly

Joy and sorrow are a part of life. Each of us has a share of both. There are many ways of showing joy, but sometimes it's difficult to express our sorrow appropriately.

When someone close dies, we find it hard to understand and accept the loss. Far too often, their death comes suddenly and prematurely. We try to console the bereaved family, but this question remains: Why did he have to die so soon? He was too young.

In this country heart and blood vessel diseases aren't deadly—they are pervasive. Of the current U.S. population of approximately 230 million, over 63 million suffer some form of these diseases. That is more than one out of every four Americans. When a loved one is suddenly dies, it is customary to send flowers and condolence cards to express sympathy. But sometimes, it seems that this is not enough. The American Heart Association's memorial gifts program is a practical and meaningful way to honor the memory of a loved one and at the same time aid research to prevent heart and blood vessel diseases.

Letter To

The Editor

Mr. Mulatz:

Would you ask Mr. Cox to elaborate on a couple of sentences which appeared in his "Brainstorms" in the September 18 issue of The Elba Clipper?

In the first paragraph, which contained an emphasis on the contemporary drug problem, he wrote, "We think this is a social problem that can only be solved by society with a change in attitudes. 'Go back to the basics.' Specifically, would you ask him to elaborate on three matters? First, what does he mean by "social problem"? Second, what does he think are the specific "attitudes" which need to be changed to correct the drug problem, and how do we about helping to change these attitudes? Third, what does he think are the "basics" (please ask him to name some) to which we need to return, and how do we about returning to them?

Thank you,

Al State Fair

Planned In Montgomery

South Alabama State Fair will be held at Garrett Coliseum in Montgomery, October 13-18.

Over $45,000 in premiums and prizes will be offered to winners in beef, dairy and swine shows; 4-H, FFA, FFA and community exhibits; art, photography, school art and flower shows and other competitive events during fair week.

A variety of entertainment will be provided by comedian, Jerry Clower, Gary Morris, The Kingsmen and Heaven Bound.

The Olympic International Circus will perform daily at the fair, Robinson's Racing Pigs, Korky, The Clown, Yvonne's Educated Monkey Show and Dick Frost, the magician. The fair will host the official Alabama contest to select the "American pie" for the Crisco Family Circle Magazine's American Pie Celebration.

$4,600 and ribbons will be offered by the fair's Creative Living Center.

Special contests will include a "Great Pumpkin" contest, $500 for the biggest, a costume contest for juniors and their dairy cows to select the best dressed cow, a quilt square contest, a cake decorating contest, sewing contest, smoking and heirloom sewing contest, a media pig scramble and dress the pig contest, a cooking with pumpkin contest and special competition for young people.

Ronald McDonald will present a special show Tuesday night, the Maxwelllaires will play Wednesday night.

The South Alabama State Fair is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Montgomery and proceeds from the fair are given to youth, education and charity.

Service Pins

Awarded At

Human Resources

Mr. Ron Smith, director of the Coffee County Dept. of Human Resources, states that he and four other employees were awarded Service Pins from the State Dept. of Human Resources in Montgomery recently.

Smith stated he received a 20-year pin, Mrs. Sue Rizzo a 15-year pin, Mrs. Dot Flowers and Mrs. Merle Boxeman each a 10-year pin, and Mrs. Rosa Coleman a 5-year pin.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Activity included a report of vandalism at Farm Bureau (8:40 a.m.), a wreck at Busy Bee Day Care (3:51 p.m.), a possible drunk driver on the Packing House Rd. (4:54 p.m.), a report of cows out on 84 E. (5:18 p.m.), a report of a drunk person at Thelma's Cafe (6:22 p.m.), a disturbance at Jackson St. (7:35 p.m.), and a report of a shooting at Danley's Crossroads (7:58 p.m.). electronics students are eligible to participate.

The program is designed for the person who would like to pursue a career with Alatex and who would like to stay in Enterprise or Andalusia," Hutto explained.

Under this plan, students will work one quarter and go to school one quarter. While students get the electronics training they need at MacArthur, they also get hands-on experience with electronic and mechanical problems in the plant's technical service department.

When either of the Alatex firms has an opening for a co-op education student, they will inform MacArthur, and the selection process will begin.

In order to be eligible for the co-op program, the student must be enrolled full-time in Electronics, have a 2.0 grade point average, display a professional attitude and participate in an interview.

Through this process, several students will be recommended to Arrow Shirts Inc., and the company will select the program participants. "Initiation of cooperative education programs such as this will help us to better serve business and industry as well as our students," Hutto said.

"We will be exploring the possibilities of similar cooperative programs with other area industries in the near future," he stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Goodson

Goodsons Honored On 50th Wedding Anniversary In Woodland Grove

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Goodson honored their parents with a reception celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on August 24, 1986, at the Woodland Grove Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodson were married August 16, 1936 by Mr. Jess Wise. They are the parents of four sons: Charles Edward, William Jack, Hugh Franklin and Roger Dale.

The fellowship hall at the church was decorated in yellow and gold to carry out the golden theme.

Guests were greeted at the door and presented to the receiving line by Shirley Goodson, one of the daughters-in-law. Grandsons Timmy and Brent received the gifts.

Guests were registered by granddaughter Brenda Rothwell.

The registry table was covered with a gold satin and lace cloth and featured as centerpiece a lovely yellow rosebud and vase.

The punch and cake tables were covered with gold satin and lace cloths, and gold bows were placed on each corner, joining the tables in the center. The bows were highlighted with plumosa fern, baby's breath, daisies, lilies and carnations.

Focal point of the cake table was the three-tiered cake decorated with yellow roses and rope trim, and topped with a golden "50." On either side of the cake was a brass five-branched candelabra. The punch table featured a brass punch bowl and brass serving dishes which held mints, nuts and cheese balls. Engraved napkins with the couple's names and wedding date were used.

Resting on the punch table was a floral arrangement of yellow roses with plumosa fern and baby's breath.

The Goodsons' granddaughters served the guests: Tina Brown cut the cake, Stephanie Goodson served punch, and Carla Sullivan assisted. The gift tables were covered with yellow cloths overlaid with lace and were attended by daughters-in-law Jewel, Edie and Janice.

For the occasion, Mrs. Goodson chose a teal blue dress with lace collar and yoke. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. Goodson wore a navy blue suit with double yellow rose boutonniere.

Present to celebrate the occasion with the honored couple were their sons and daughters-in-law, seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Approximately 100 guests attended between the hours of two and four. The couple received many beautiful gifts.

Miss Meeker Weds Mr. Harper At Grace Methodist Church

The marriage of Miss Mary Camille Meeker and Mark Everett Harper was solemnized September 6, 1986, at Grace United Methodist Church, with the Rev. John M. Younger Jr. performing the ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Elwood Meeker II of Belvedere, S.C. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Harper Sr. of North Augusta, S.C., and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marion Harper Sr. of Elba.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white silk organza gown with lavish hand-embellished Austrian lace accented with crystal beading and a fitted bodice with an offset portrait neckline. The bouffant ruffled sleeves were layered with an off-shoulder design.

The skirt was softly gathered with layers of cascading tulle with elegant deep appliques of cutwork embellished lace.

Her veil was caught by a silk-flowered wreath accented with a circlet of Mother-of-Pearl stylized Valley lilies. Silk roses held her fingertip illusion of English netting. She carried cascading white and lavender roses.

Miss Lynn McGahee of Augusta, Ga., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gigi Meeker of Jacksonville, N.C.; Miss Pam Zielinski, Belvedere, S.C.; Miss Angela Tyler, North Augusta, S.C.; and Miss Marilyn Perdue of Medway, Ohio. They wore gowns of perfect rose antique satin and carried recent designed bouquets of purple and lavender fuchsia poms and pixie carnations.

Mr. Harper was his son's best man. Ushers were William Howard Harper Jr. and Christopher Marion Harper, both of Atlanta, brothers of the groom. William Benjamin Rucker of North Augusta, cousin of the groom, and James Hughes of North Augusta.

The bride's mother wore a rose chignon gown. The mother of the groom was dressed in a gown of turquoise silk.

RECEPTION A reception followed at the church, with Mrs. Jeanne Harper keeping the guest registry.

Honored guests were Mrs. Camille Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, grandparents of the bride, and Mr. William Moore Kelly, grandfather of the groom.

Following a honeymoon in Panama City, Fla., the couple will make their home in Spartanburg, S.C.

Tucker Reunion To Be Held September 28th

The descendants of Dr. Ethel Tucker will have their family reunion Sunday, Sept. 28, beginning at 9:30 a.m., at the Tarentum Community Building in Tarentum, Ala., on Highway 125, near the 21-mile marker, between Elba and Brundidge.

For those interested in a Children of the Confederacy group, information will be available for forming a local club.

For more information contact Mr. Clayton Metcalf, 347-8390, or Lt. Col. Ron Jones, 347-1543.

All Tuckers are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alvie Galimore celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 21, 1986, at their home on Sunset Blvd. with a reception from two-thirty until four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ruth Mack invited guests into the home where they were received by the couple and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Galimore of Mobile, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Parrish of Montgomery, and their grandson, Chad Galimore of Mobile.

The guest register was attended by the Galimores' granddaughter, Miss Shea Galimore of Mobile. The registry table was covered with a hand-crocheted overlay and held a brass centerpiece with votive candles.

The refreshment table was covered with a cloth of candlelight satin and lace which had been hand-made for Mrs. Galimore's parents' 50th wedding anniversary in 1967, by her aunt, Mrs. Augusta Turner.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was adorned with bouquets of fugi mums, button poms, daisies, cushion mums, leatherleaf fern and Swedish ivy.

A brass candelabra held five white tapers and fresh flowers. Brass trays and compotes held shells filled with chicken salad, white chocolate-covered pretzels, cheese straws, nuts and mints. Matching ivy and flowers complemented the brass bowl filled with golden punch.

Assisting with the serving were: Mrs. Janice McCall, Mrs. Charlotte Ramsey, Miss Lisa Grimes, Miss Regina Hudson, Mrs. Kaye Whitworth, Mrs. Jeanette Branch.

Others assisting with the event were Mrs. Myrt Smith, Mrs. Carolyn Bradley, Mrs. Shirley Henderson, Mrs. Henrietta Grimes, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, Mrs. Sherlene Newton, Mrs. Mabel Lee, Mrs. Elizabeth Dyess, Mrs. Kim Bane, Mrs. Jean Scarborough, Mrs. Myra Kelley, Mrs. Jean Culver.

Approximately 300 guests called during the party hours including out-of-town friends and relatives.

From Kinston: Viola Daugherty, Rosa Lee Jones, Ether Mae Smith.

Personal Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seymour are celebrating their 49th wedding anniversary today (Sept. 25).

Mr. Seymour is a resident of the Elba Nursing Home.

Curtis School Reunion To Be Held October 4th

A reunion for all former Curtis School students, faculty, cooks and custodians and family members is being planned for Oct. 4 at the former site of the Curtis School, where the Coffee Co. Farmers Co-op now stands.

Fellowship will begin at 2:00 p.m. (enjoy boiled peanuts) with a covered dish supper at 5:00 p.m. Everyone is asked to bring a covered dish and a lawn chair.

Daughters Of The Confederacy Workshop To Be Held

A two-hour workshop will be held in Enterprise on September 30, 1-3 p.m. for anyone wishing to become a member of the Alabama United Daughters of the Confederacy. The workshop will be sponsored by the Pea River Historical and Genealogical Society and those who have completed family genealogy, just beginning, or would like to start may attend. The workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Bill Short, 1st vice president of the State division, and Mrs. Collier Grider, district director.

For those interested in a Children of the Confederacy group, information will be available for forming a local club.

For more information contact Mr. Clayton Metcalf, 347-8390, or Lt. Col. Ron Jones, 347-1543.

All Tuckers are welcome.

Katie Elizabeth Dyess Is One Year Old

Katie Elizabeth Dyess celebrated her first birthday on Saturday, September 13, at her home in the country. Thirty-nine friends and relatives attended the celebration.

Katie is the daughter of Dr. Lance K. Dyess and Benita Flowers Dyess. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Flowers of Elba, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Dyess of Opp.

Katie's great grandparents are Pearl Flowers, Elba; Estelle Foley, Elba; and J.T. Dyess, Florida.

The bride wore a formal designer gown of white silk crystalline.

The fitted bodice of point d'esprit was overlaid with re-embroidered lace appliques, in a floral pattern and accented with strands of pearls, pearl clusters and bridal sequins. A medallion of silk Venice lace adorned the center of the bodice, and the back featured scalloped lace appliques and a row of tiny satin covered buttons.

Matching lace appliques highlighted the elbow-length sleeves which were slightly puffed and banded with Venice lace and silk organza roses. A row of silk Venice lace flower motifs circled the waistline which held a full circular skirt.

A deep border of scalloped re-embroidered lace applied on point d'esprit formed the neckline and swept to a chapel-length train. Satin streamers fell from the satin bow and organza rosette at the back of the waist.

Her veil of silk illusion was gathered to a Mary, Queen of Scots cap which was covered with silk organza petals and leaves and accented with pearl strands and crystals. Pearl filaments fell to one side over the ear. The walking length illusion was pencil-edged and complete with blusher.

The bride carried a beautiful combination of white silk flowers consisting of enchantment lilies, fugi mums, spider lilies, latibean orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath which formed a flowing cascade accented with white picot ribbons. Her white Bible formed the base of the arrangement.

Mrs. Carol Raucio of Prattville was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Karen Grider and Mrs. Amy Free, both of Elba; Miss Vonda Marler, Enterprise; Miss Reggie Sparks, Tampa, Fla.; and Miss Jina Willette, Mobile.

The attendants were matching floor-length gowns of royal blue taffeta. The sweetheart necklines were enhanced by multiple ruffles extending around the neckline and across the front of the bodice. The full gathered skirts were accented by matching sashes at the waist. They carried bouquets of lilies.

Mr. Fred Clark served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Fred Clark Jr., brother of the groom; Joe Brooks, brother of the bride; Greg Gibson, Mike Carney and Mike Harrellson, all of Elba; Bill Parker, Pensacola, Fla.; and Todd Westbrook, Huntsville, Ala.

The groom and groomsmen were dressed in white Wilshire tuxedo jackets with black tuxedo trousers. Formal white wing-tipped shirts with black accessories completed their attire. The groom and groomsmen wore boutonnieres of peach-colored roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brooks chose an elegant floor-length gown in mauve crepe georgette. Her corsage was fashioned of alstroemeria lilies.

Mrs. Clark, mother of the groom, was becomingly attired in a soft shade of raspberry. Her corsage was also made of alstroemeria lilies.

Maulden - Clark Wedding

Miss Julie Ann Maulden and Mr. Mark Moates Clark were united in marriage on Saturday, September 6, at 5:30 in the afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Elba.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Brooks of Elba, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Clark, Elba. Mr. Sam Maulden of Ozark is the father of the bride.

Dr. Pat McFadden officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony.

The double door entrances to the church sanctuary and social hall were marked with natural grapevine wreaths with bows of royal blue ribbon and peach-colored silk flowers placed symmetrically.

The sanctuary was resplendent with candlesticks holding white tapers interspersed with jade leaf palms arranged around the front of the sanctuary. Boxwood garlands trimmed the choir railing with arrangements of white gladioli and daisies appointed at intervals.

A large sunburst of white gladioli, daisies and pom poms which centered a large spiraling arch with white tapers completed the setting. Family pews were marked with single candlelight pew markers and the eight sanctuary windows were decorated with white tapers in arrangements of lilies and ivy.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Paul King, organist; Mrs. Fred K. Ham, pianist; Miss Lesley Ham, soloist; and Mr. Butch Oggs, soloist. Soloist selections included "Time for Joy," by Gerry Limpic, "Here We Are Now," by John Purifoy, and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore a formal designer gown of white silk crystalline.

The fitted bodice of point d'esprit was overlaid with re-embroidered lace appliques, in a floral pattern and accented with strands of pearls, pearl clusters and bridal sequins. Matching lace appliques highlighted the elbow-length sleeves which were slightly puffed and banded with Venice lace and silk organza roses. A row of silk Venice lace flower motifs circled the waistline which held a full circular skirt.

A deep border of scalloped re-embroidered lace applied on point d'esprit formed the hemline and swept to a chapel-length train. Satin streamers fell from the satin bow and organza rosette at the back of the waist.

Her veil of silk illusion was gathered to a Mary, Queen of Scots cap which was covered with silk organza petals and leaves and accented with pearl strands and crystals. Pearl filaments fell to one side over the ear. The walking length illusion was pencil-edged and completed with blusher.

The bride carried a beautiful combination of white silk flowers consisting of enchantment lilies, fugi mums, spider lilies, latibean orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath which formed a flowing cascade accented with white picot ribbons. Her white Bible formed the base of the arrangement.

The attendants were matching floor-length gowns of royal blue taffeta. The sweetheart necklines were enhanced by multiple ruffles extending around the neckline and across the front of the bodice. The full gathered skirts were accented by matching sashes at the waist. They carried bouquets of lilies.

Mr. Fred Clark served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Fred Clark Jr., brother of the groom; Greg Brooks, brother of the bride; Greg Gibson, Mike Carley and Mike Harrelson, all of Elba; Bill Parker, Pensacola, Fla.; and Todd Westbrook, Huntsville, Ala.

The groom and groomsmen were dressed in white Wilshire tuxedo jackets with black tuxedo shirts. Formal white wing-tipped trousers with black accessories completed their attire. The groom and groomsmen wore boutonnieres of peach-colored roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brooks chose an elegant floor-length gown in mauve crepe georgette. Her corsage was fashioned of astroemeria lilies.

Mrs. Clark, mother of the groom, was becomingly attired in a floor-length crepe gown in a soft shade of raspberry. Her corsage was also made of astroemeria lilies.

Katie Elizabeth Dyess Is One Year Old

Katie Elizabeth Dyess celebrated her first birthday on Saturday, September 13, at her home in the country. Thirty-nine friends and relatives attended the celebration.

Katie is the daughter of Dr. Lance K. Dyess and Benita Flowers Dyess. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Flowers of Elba, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Dyess of Opp.

Katie's great grandparents are Pearl Flowers, Elba; Estelle Foley, Elba; and J.T. Dyess, Florida.

Galimores Honored On Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Alvie Galimore celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 21, 1986, at their home on Sunset Blvd., with a reception from two-thirty until four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ruth Mack invited guests into the home where they were received by the couple and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Galimore of Mobile, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Parrish of Montgomery, and their grandson, Chad Galimore of Mobile.

The guest register was attended by the Galimores' granddaughter, Miss Shea Galimore of Mobile. The registry table was covered with a hand-embroidered overlay and held a brass centerpiece with votive candles.

The refreshment table was covered with a cloth of candlelight satin and lace which had been hand-made for Mrs. Galimore's parents' 50th wedding anniversary in 1967, by her aunt, Mrs. Augusta Turner.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was adorned with bouquets of fugi mums, button poms, daisies, cushion mums, leatherleaf fern and Swedish ivy.

Present to celebrate the occasion with the honored couple were their sons and daughters-in-law, seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Approximately 100 guests attended between the hours of two and four. The couple received many beautiful gifts.

Following a honeymoon in Panama City, Fla., the couple will make their home in Spartanburg, S.C.

SOCIALS

Maulden - Clark Wedding

Miss Julie Ann Maulden and Mr. Mark Moates Clark were united in marriage on Saturday, September 6, at 5:30 in the afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Elba.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Brooks of Elba, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Clark, Elba. Mr. Sam Maulden of Ozark is the father of the bride.

Dr. Pat McFadden officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony.

The double door entrances to the church sanctuary and social hall were marked with natural grapevine wreaths with bows of royal blue ribbon and peach-colored silk flowers placed symmetrically.

The sanctuary was resplendent with candlesticks holding white tapers interspersed with jade leaf palms arranged around the front of the sanctuary. Boxwood garlands trimmed the choir railing with arrangements of white gladioli and daisies appointed at intervals.

A large surmount of white gladioli, daisies and pom poms which centered a large spiraling arch with white tapers completed the setting. Family pews were marked with single candlelight pew markers and the eight sanctuary windows were decorated with white tapers in arrangements of lilies and ivy.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Paul King, organist; Mrs. Fred K. Ham, pianist; Miss Lesley Ham, soloist; and Mr. Butch Oggs, soloist. Soloist selections included "Time for Joy," by Gerry Limpic; "Here We Are Now," by John Purifoy, and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore a formal design gown of white silk crystalline. The fitted bodice of point of spirit was overlaid with re-embroidered lace appliques, in a floral pattern and accented with strands of pearls, pearl clusters and bridal sequins.

A medallion of silk Venice lace adorned the center of the bodice, and the back featured scalloped lace appliques and a row of tiny satin covered buttons.

Matching lace appliques highlighted the elbow-length sleeves which were slightly puffed and banded with Venice lace and silk organza roses. A row of silk Venice lace flower motifs circled the waistline which held a full circular skirt.

A deep border of scalloped re-embroidered lace applied on point d'esprit formed the hemline and swept to a chapel-length train. Satin streamers fell from the satin bow and organza rosette at the back of the waist.

Her veil of silk illusion was gathered to a Mary, Queen of Scots cap which was covered with silk organza petals and leaves and accented with pearl strands and crystals. Pearl filaments fell to one side over the ear. The walking length illusion was pencil-edged and completed with blusher.

Mrs. Mark Moates Clark

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Lee Boyd IV, New Brockton.

Along with wedding cake, guests enjoyed a variety of finger foods.

Following a wedding trip to Barbados, West Indies, the couple is at home in Auburn.

RECEPTION

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the social rooms of the church.

Hurricane lamps with royal blue ribbons lined the walkway leading to the entrance of the social hall.

The bride and groom's tables were placed in front of rattan screens with entwined philodendron, complemented by large ferns on each side of the screens.

Six large brass candlesticks marked the center of the reception hall which included ferns surrounding a white rice bag tree trimmed with the bride's colors. Miss Amy Giles, Miss Emily Strong, Miss Elaine Strong and Miss Elizabeth Strong gave out rice bags.

Fruited punch was served from two silver punch bowls encircled with royal blue and peach lilies.

PRE-NUPITAL PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark entertained the wedding party and other guests at a rehearsal dinner on Sept. 5 at the Elba Inn.

The home of Mrs. Larry Goodson was the setting for the bridesmaids' luncheon at noon on Sept. 6.

Other hostesses were Mrs. R. King, Mrs. Ray Goodson and Mrs. John Robert Smith.

After a delicious luncheon was enjoyed by the guests, the hostesses presented Miss Maulden with a silver reliquary and covered server.

The groomsmen's luncheon was held at noon on Sept. 6 at the E.M. Warr country home. Hostesses were Mrs. Paul King, Mrs. Byron Bruce Jr., Mrs. Bill Martin and Mrs. Arlan Brown.

QUINTET TO PERFORM AT ESJC... The Borealis Wind Quintet will perform at Enterprise State Junior College on October 7 at 7:30 p.m. The Quintet consists of: Kathryn Taylor, clarinetist; Michael Finn, bassoonist; [seated]; Richard Price, hornist; Katherine Fink, flutist; and Lamar Beach Wells, oboist. Tickets for the performance are on sale in the ESJC Business Office. Call 393-ESJC for additional information.

Retired Teachers Welcome New Members At First Meeting

Four new members were welcomed by the Coffee County Retired Teachers Association at their first meeting of the club year held Tuesday, September 16, at Perry's Store Restaurant.

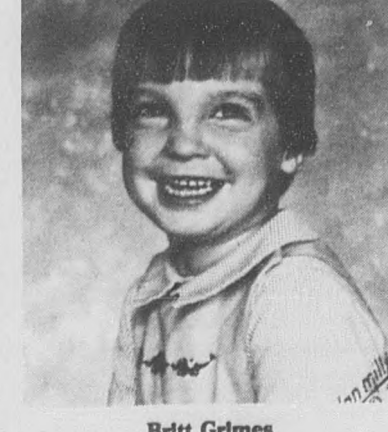

The new members included Joe Baker, Enterprise; Callie Coleman, Nellie English and Sybil Wise of Elba. Seventy members were on hand to welcome the new members.

In the absence of Rep. Jimmy Holley and Sen. Crum Foshee who were scheduled to speak, the members conducted a round-table discussion on topics related to the teaching profession and to the retired teachers in particular.

President B.F. Garth reviewed the duties of the various committees and urged them to fulfill their obligations.

The next meeting of the Association will be October 14 at Enterprise State Junior College with Miss Louise LeCompte as speaker.

Britt Grimes

Britt Grimes Celebrates Fourth Birthday

Britt Grimes celebrated his fourth birthday Sunday, Sept. 21, in the Ronald McDonald party caboose in Enterprise. Games, cake, ice cream, soft drinks, party favors and hats were enjoyed by the guests.

Those helping Britt celebrate were his parents, Bryan and Anita Grimes; grandparents, Durwood and Marylene Grimes, Elba; and Claire and Bowden Sessions of the Fairview Community.

Other guests were Amelia, Tiffany, Suzanne and Rhic Rhodes of Kinston; Gunter and Gwen Akridge, Daniel and Joan Ward, Douglas and Derek Marler, Melissa and Emily Binbo, Derek, Jeffery and Debra Damon, Sharon and Danny Morris, all of Elba; Kayla and Elaine Hudson, Brantley, and Annette Davis, Wicksburg.

After the party, the children enjoyed a time of play.

Elba PTO To Meet

REBEL BRIEFS

JUNIORS BEGIN MAGAZINE SALE
BY: TAMMY DUNCAN

The junior class of Zion Chapel began magazine sales on Wednesday, September 17, 1986, and will continue the sales until October 6, 1986. The money collected for magazines will be used in the preparations for the Junior Senior prom, which will be held on Friday evening, May 1, 1987 at the Zion Chapel Gym. Each member of the junior class is expected to raise $100 before he or she can attend the prom. The juniors are really excited about the magazine sales and hope to have one of the greatest proms yet!

SEAN COLLINS IS 0-97 PLAYER OF THE WEEK
BY: PETER BRYAN

On Friday, September 12, our very own Sean Collins was awarded the first ever 0-97 Godfather's player of the week award. 0-97 Godfather's player of the week is a contest in which people call in their nomination on Tuesday until midnight. The following Thursday night, there is a run-off among the four nominees who have the most votes. Votes are taken until midnight Thursday night. The nominee with the most call-in votes is the winner.

The students of Zion Chapel rose to the occasion as they supported Sean to over a one-hundred vote margin. Representatives from 0-97 came to the Z.C. pep rally and presented Sean with a certificate and a 0-97 jacket. He gave words of thanks to the fans and urged them to come to the game and support the Rebels.

"GOD BLESS AMERICA"
BY: LAVONIA JOHNSON

The Zion Chapel Rebel Marching Band has a new prop - the American Flag. The flag is used in the half-time show to add color and variety to the song "God Bless America." The flag is twelve yards all and fifteen yards long. It took 185 square yards of material to make the flag. The dye for the flag cost between $60-$70. The fabric was donated by Michaela Mills in 1999. Our flag looks just like the American flag, except there are less stars because of the way the stripes had to be done so that the color guard could hold it up.

The following people helped with the making of the flag - Mrs. Marsha Oggs, Mrs. Shirley Dean, Mrs. Rebecca Jackson, Susie Nelson, Beverly Boutwell, Lavonia Johnson, Tammy Gibson, Andrea Campbell, Tracey Pearson, Angie Campbell, Melissa Johnson, Angela Rodgers, April Gibson, Janie Pittman, and Karen Williams.

Thanks to all of those people who helped, it took one week to have the flag completed and ready for showtime.

LIBRARY AIDES
BY: BRIAN MCLEOD

How would you like to keep up with around 5000 books? Well, that is exactly the job Mrs. Lowery and her library aides have. Library aides are students who have chosen to use their free period as an aide instead of having a study hall.

There are no specific requirements for becoming a library aide. But once you become one, you must learn proper use of the card catalog and have a understanding of the Dewey Decimal System.

The duties of library aide include checking books in and out, checking film projectors, record players and other equipment out to teachers, and seeing that the books and equipment are properly returned to the shelves. They also assist other students in finding information in the library.

SENIOR NEWS

SENIOR EXPENSES

BY: CHERYL FAISON

When the excitement and anticipation of beginning the new school year begins to get calmer, the seniors of 1987 must start planning a long-awaited graduation. The most difficult thing about graduation is that it is very expensive. As a whole graduation will cost the entire senior class of Zion Chapel approximately $600.

The major fund raising event is the annual homecoming dance sponsored by the senior class. The dance itself is a costly production but hopefully will be a profitable event. The seniors will have to pay the fee of $250 for a Disc Jockey and purchase $150 worth of refreshments.

Once the debts from homecoming are paid the seniors will begin budgeting the cost of Baccalaureate and Graduation which will cost $250. Incorporated in this is a cost of $25 for a singer, $200 for programs, $50 for the senior tea and $50 for a clean-up crew.

In addition there are individual student expenses. Senior portraits are among the first and most expensive item a student may buy. Zion Chapel seniors who chose to be photographed at school by Olan Mills were charged a $10 deposit fee. Those who already received their portraits from Olan Mills in 1999 are charged a $10 deposit fee. For example, the senior special of $149.95 would be $139.95 deducting deposit. Or someone could get a Deluxe Special for $199.95, the Saver Special for $99.95, or the Economy Special for $19.95. Balfour representative Rusty Parker will take orders for invitations and thank you notes, memory books, and class keys. All this is a package deal. Prices are between $50 and $150 according to an individual's preferences. Zion Chapel seniors will also buy a cap and gown costing $10.

Besides the tradition graduate items there are tee-shirts and sweat shirts with the signatures of all the seniors printed on them selling for between $8 and $12. There are also "I love the class of 87" bumper stickers, buttons, key rings, and the stickers selling all for $3.90 or each for different prices. Even after all graduation things are paid for there will still be a prom gown to be bought, a tuxedo to be rented, transportation and other details to be taken care of in the spring of the year.

No matter how high the price many seniors will spare no expense to graduate from Zion Chapel in 1987.

SPONSOR HAS A BIRTHDAY!
BY: BRENDA MOBLEY

Mrs. Gale Jackson, co-sponsor of the seniors of 1987, had a birthday on Friday, September 12. The seniors all chipped in and bought her a bouquet of roses and a birthday balloon. The seniors are so appreciative of her because she is constantly in search of some activity for them.

The seniors have already ordered Class of '87 shirts. Everyone signed their names on a piece of paper, to be printed on the shirts. The class has also ordered bumper stickers and keychains that say "I Love the Class of '87". The seniors would like to sincerely thank Mrs. Jackson for all her help, favors, and support.

PORTRAIT PROOFS ARE BACK
BY: SHARON POPE

"Which pose do you like?", "Which one do you think is best?", These were questions asked this past week by a lot of seniors. The reason for all of this confusion was because the seniors got their senior portrait proofs back. Even when everyone has their mind made up, there will still be the decision of which package of pictures to purchase. Some seemed to be satisfied with their pictures, while others didn't. Nevertheless, every senior will probably look back at the senior portrait, years from now and laugh and say -- "That's what I used to look like!"

Advanced Math Class Joins Updated Curriculum At Z.C.

MATH DEPARTMENT
BY: ASTRID BLASCHKA

An Advanced Math Class is being taught at Zion Chapel for the first time. It is designed to help students prepare for college. The course is taught by Mary Herbert and there are ten students in the class. Mrs. Herbert said she was very excited about teaching this course. She hopes it will better prepare her students that are going to college. She says that all the students are doing well and believe's that all of them are putting forth a great effort. The students in the class are juniors and seniors, but the class was opened to anyone who had completed other courses of higher math.

PART-TIME SOLDIERING CAN LEAD TO A FULL-TIME FUTURE.

First, there's a skill to be learned in the Army Reserve. There are several to choose from in a nearby Army Reserve unit. Then, there's the opportunity to receive as much as $5,040 for college under the New G.I. Bill. And it won't cost you a penny.

And then, there's the challenge to you physically, mentally and emotionally. Whichever way your career path takes you, there are so many ways that Army Reserve will help.

You'll serve one weekend a month (usually) plus two weeks annual training and earn over $1,225 to start. There's lots more to learn about the Army Reserve. Stop by or call:

Cooperative Education Feature

The Cooperative Education Program at Elba High School features Eljah Gilbert and Taylor Auto Parts and Supply.

Eljah, a senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gilbert. He has been working at Taylor Parts and Supply since July 17, 1986. He enjoys his work and feels the training on the job will be beneficial to him.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Doug Dunn, manager of Taylor Parts, for his support of the students and the Cooperative Education Program.

Elba Stadium Has Mole Cricket Problem

An unidentified Elba Tiger has become very concerned about the Elba Tiger football field. He didn't want his name to be printed, but he did submit this into his English journal and also wanted it to be printed on the Tiger Tales page to let everyone know about the mole cricket problem.

Thanks for your concern and we'll help the best way we can.

Mole crickets are slowly taking over the Elba Tiger football field. These little boggers resemble a cross between spiders and crickets, and are destroying our football field by tunneling their way underground. This destroys the roots, which kills the grass.

The after-effects are terrible to the field: the dirt stinks and there are huge holes scattered throughout the field. Something must be done about this problem.

Mr. Pest Control Man - please help us - please!

POEM Dawn Of The Day

[A Daydreamer's Theme]

Sometimes I sit . . .
I sit and dream.
I think about life.
And what it all means.

I don't understand -
I try my best.
But the answer eludes me.
It won't let me rest.

I can't figure it out.
The meaning won't come.
The answer is close.
It beats my brain like a drum.

So I sit . . .
I sit and grow old.
Life passes me by.
As my story is told.

I'm no longer here,
I've gone far away.
I'll be back tomorrow -
With the dawn of the day.

A Stormy Crew Sets Sail

STORMY??? Yes, 22 over-sight seniors were at it again! As this hurricane force swept through a tidal wave decision of selecting a yearbook cover recently, the 1987 Elba rode ashore!

Kevin Killingsworth at the helm, assisted by Herby McCall, with 20 other staffers, will generate the plans and designs for the '87 production. Staff activities during the first few weeks have centered around becoming familiar with roles of particular staff positions and studying text material relative to yearbook production.

Clyde Yelverton paid one visit to the staff, and he will return for several one-hour workshops within the next few weeks. Mr. Yelverton and Mrs. McCallough will present Josten's American Yearbook Company's new curriculum guides for journalism which have been adopted by many state departments of education across the United States.

Realizing that the theme sets the tone of the book and unifies the production, and is the most important phase of yearbook design, the staff members have begun "brainstorming" with zeal. Brainstorming will generate more ideas and begins its free-writing and pre-writing activities.

Kevin as captain and Herby as first mate will draw on the strength of a full crew which includes:

Patrick Norris - finance director
Janna Westbrook and Johnny Holley - photographers
Kim Kelley and Susan Farmer - activities editors
Damon Lowrey, Melissa Moore and Warren Gailmore - organizations editors
Bill Bruckner and Matt Brunson - sports editors

Julie Sullivan, Richie Jacobs, Scott Lawless, Camilla Blasi, Eddie McGraw, Stephanie Crittenden, Boyd English, David Sims, Paige Morrow and Dottie Stoudemire - classes editors.

Mrs. Helen McCallough, chief technician, reports, "Despite the storm, this crew is afloat with 'full speed ahead' as it now endeavors to crest each wave and to sail into smoother waters."

According to Kevin and Herby, "Watch out for the weather bulletins!"

Predict Scores

This week we have allowed six sophomore boys to predict the scores, since our seniors haven't been doing very well at predicting. But we also hope these boys are wrong, since two of the six are predicting a Pike County win!

Well, I'm sticking by my Tiger team, still. I predict a close 14-13 Elba win!

Football Feature

WHITNEY WISE is the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Shirley Wise and the late Jimmy Wise. She is a sophomore cheerleader. This is Whitney's first year as a varsity cheerleader and she is doing an exceptional job. She is also a very active member in various school clubs, such as Mu Alpha Theta, Beta Club, "E" Club, Jr. Music Club and the Girl Scouts. She attends the Elba United Methodist Church. Good luck Whitney!

DARREN SMITH is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Smith. He is a senior offensive guard. Darren has had a good year so far and we are hoping that #70 will keep up the good work. Darren is a member of FFA, the "E" Club, and the First Baptist Church of Elba. Good luck Darren!

KIM BERRY is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berry. He is a senior free safety. Kim has been doing very well for the past couple of years and we continue to wish #20 good luck. Kim is also a member of the Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, "E" Club, Science Club and the First Baptist Church of Elba. Best of luck Kim!

WARREN GAILMORE is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mackie Gailmore. He is a senior defensive end. Warren has had two good years and we are hoping that he continues his good playing. Warren is a member of the "E" Club, FFA and Mt. Olive Baptist Church. We wish you the best of luck, BEAVER.

Love Others As Thyself

Peers often can be cruel. If someone doesn't wear the latest hair style, buy the most expensive clothes, or say the right things at the right moment, he or she is laughed at and rejected. It is easy to fall into a trap of loving one's "popular" group of kids and putting our noses up at the not-so-popular group.

How does God feel about this? It causes Him much pain and displeasure. He desires we love everyone equally as He does.

"All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" (Gal. 5:14). Let us be careful not to cause hurt to others. Instead, let's show Christ's love, and as a result help mend hurting hearts. If each of us would do our part to love our neighbors as ourselves, we could help make a happier world.

If you are ever tempted to go along with the crowd and exclude someone from the group, first ask yourself: "Would I want to be treated that way? How would it feel if I were treated that way?"

Good Cents Homes are going up.

See the Good Cents display at the Covington County Fair, Andalusia, October 27 - November 1.

There's a new kind of home going up in our area. It cuts energy costs for heating and cooling by 50%! We call it the Good Cents Home.

Here's how it works. When they construct a home, progressive local builders include special design and equipment features which reduce energy consumption. These features (illustrated above) include improved insulation levels, attic ventilation systems, insulated doors and windows, vapor barriers and super efficient equipment.

Z.C. Curriculum Spotlight

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT
BY: SHEILA RUGG

Zion Chapel's curriculum has had the number of business courses increased. The classes being taught are Business Law, Business Math, Recordkeeping and Typing I. Business Law is taught to help students become more familiar with certain rules to follow in both business and personal relations. It covers the kinds of law and how they relate to society.

Business Math consists of the basic mathematical skills in subtraction, addition, multiplication and division. It covers problems in money, records, buying, wage income, commission income, personal finance, savings and investments, home expenses, transportation and taxes.

The students who take record-keeping learn basic skills such as comparing names, numbers, and addresses, arranging numbers, and dates, filing business papers, and writing in a penmanship that is easily read. After taking record-keeping, the students will be able to keep records for various businesses.

Typing I is the course of study that teaches students the basic skills of typewriting. Learning letter and figure keys, tables and charts, business letter, simple letters, outlines and short reports are among the assignments the students are required to do.

These business courses, taught by Mrs. Rachel Bryan, enable students to pursue careers in the business world.

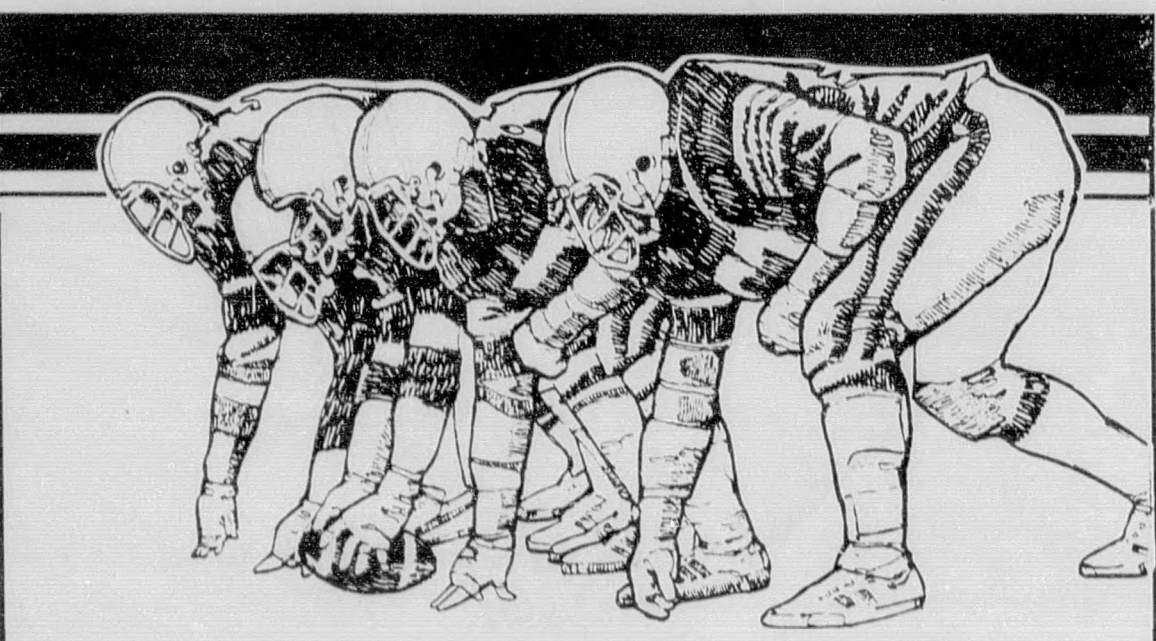

Mrs. Bryan, a veteran with 19 years' experience, said, "I am pleased that Zion Chapel's business courses have been increased. I would like to see the business program at Zion Chapel increased to the point that we offer the courses necessary for student's who are not college oriented to obtain the necessary job entry skills."

Mrs. Marsha Oggs teaches a course in child development to nineteen Freshmen class members.

In child development these students will learn the necessary skills to become a baby sitter, write children's stories, and analyze toys for safety. They will also learn how to keep a child healthy, secure, and how to meet it's needs.

Right now the child development students are learning about safe home environments and safe toys. On Tuesday's and Thursday's they go to the elementary school to work with the children there.

Last year four of the county's five football teams competed in the state playoffs, prompting me to call Coffee County the football capital of Alabama. Well, after four weeks this season, New Brockton is the only team in the county with a winning record and the five schools combined have a record of 5 wins and 13 losses. What's going on?

Elba Jr. Tigers Blank Opp 20-0

The Elba Junior High Tigers took command early and rolled to an impressive 20-0 win over the Opp Junior Bobcats last week at Opp. The win upped Elba's record to 2-0, while Opp slipped to 0-2 with the loss.

Elba's Reggie Horstead returned an Opp punt 32 yards to the Bobcat 13-yard line early in the game to put the Tigers in business, and from there it took Elba only 4 plays to reach paydirt!

Horstead ripped off runs of 7 and 5 yards to get the ball close, then walked over from a yard out to score the touchdown. A two-point try failed, but with 3:46 left in the first quarter Elba was ahead to stay at 6-0.

The Tigers added a touchdown late in the second quarter following an Opp penalty, to go ahead 12-0 at the half.

Elba appeared to be stopped at the Opp 41, but a roughing-the-kicker penalty gave the Tigers new life at the Bobcat 26-yard line. A 19-yard gain by Jackie Stoudemire on an end-around got Elba close and Kevin Matthews scored 3 plays later on a 1-yard sneak.

The conversion again failed; however, the Tigers were in complete control with a 12-0 lead.

Elba threatened to add to its lead early in the third quarter as it reached the Opp 12-yard line, but the drive bogged down, and on fourth down a 34-yard field-goal attempt by Wade Hart fell far short.

The Tigers' final touchdown came in the closing seconds of the game as they marched 36 yards in 5 plays. Reggie Horstead gained 29 yards on the drive and notched the score on a 22-yard dash with just :22 left in the game. Jackie Stoudemire ran for the two-point conversion, giving Elba the 20-0 win.

Reggie Horstead gained 136 yards on 22 carries to lead Elba, while Jackie Stoudemire added 45 yards on 3 carries. Anthony Brooks made 9 tackles to lead the defense, while Tim Caldwell made 5 and Joe Brooks, Rob Kirkland, Keith Henderson and Wade Hart all added 4.

Elba Football Teams Sweep Kinston In Little League Action

The Elba Little League football teams all played host to Kinston last weekend and all three teams put on quite a performance as the Elba teams won all three games by a combined score of 106-0.

Following are brief recaps of each game:

Elba Midget Tigers 30 Kinston 0

The Tigers pulled out to a 22-0 halftime lead and rolled to a 33-0 win over the Kinston Midget Bulldogs. Sterling Jones started the scoring parade for Elba in the first stanza with a 43-yard touchdown scamper.

while Dunderay Peterson added a score in the quarter with a 5-yard run. Todd McKee and Jones added two-point conversions and at the end of no stanza Elba was ahead 16-0.

Sterling Jones scored his second touchdown of the game in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 22-0 lead at the half and Roscoe Coleman scored in the final stanza and Steve Hodge added the conversion to make the final score 30-0.

Sterling Jones gained 52 yards to lead the Elba ground attack, while Roscoe Coleman added 42 yards and Todd McKee added 38 yards. McKee led the way on defense with 5

ELBA LOSING STREAK REACHES THREE GAMES

The Elba Tigers' losing streak reached three games last week and the sudden drought has players, coaches and fans all shaking their heads and wondering when the next win will come. It's been a long time since Elba's had a losing record, which is a tribute to all the players who have come through the program, and even though things look bad now, the season is a long way from being over, and I think the Tigers can still put it all together and post a bunch more wins. Elba has a winning tradition that was built over a long period of time, and a couple of losses can't tarnish the Tigers' rich history. Elba fans need to remember what the Tigers can do and give 'em your total support. It's easy to be a fan when things are going good... but a real fan sticks with the team through good times and bad. 'C'mon, let all the players know we're behind 'em all the way!

ELBA SCORELESS STRING EXTENDS TO 10 QUARTERS

Elba's 16-0 loss to Opp last week marked the second straight game the Tigers had failed to score, and brought their scoreless string to 10 quarters, going back to the second half of the Geneva game. It looks like Elba's offensive machine has broken down!

The offense had its worst showing of the season against Opp as it gained only 47 yards on the ground and totaled barely over 100 yards for the game. The offense saw 9-man lines throughout the game as Opp dared Elba to pass and completely shut down the once powerful running game. Elba gained only 11 yards on the ground in the second half, which is unbelievable, and the sudden problems with the running game have played a major role in the lack of points. Elba's offense was expected to get off to a slow start this season due to a lack of experience in several areas; however, nobody in their worst nightmare expected the offense to score only 2 touchdowns in four games! If wins are to come, the offense must put points on the board and take pressure of the defense (that's no secret), and show an ability to move the ball. Until it does, all the games will be battles to the end.

The defense played well against Opp and except for one big play almost shut down the explosive Opp attack. The defense was on the field for much of the game due to the offense's problems, but played real hard and showed a lot of pride and class by battling until the end and never giving up. I know that a win is a team win and a loss is a team loss; however, Elba's defense is anything but losers! A bright spot in the loss on defense was the play of linebacker Jason Hodge, who was making his first start. Hodge played with reckless abandon throughout the game and showed a spirit - something that hasn't been showing up real often in recent weeks!

All in all, Elba didn't play that bad against Opp and had chances to pull out the win right up until the final stanza. The loss hurt the Tigers bad, as was evident in the postgame dressing room, but when the losses hurt, a team usually bounces back with a vengeance. The win may have awakened the real Elba Tigers!!!!

NEW BROCKTON CONTINUES TO CARRY COUNTY BANNER

The football season continued to be a disappointing one for county fans as only New Brockton was able to pull off a win in week No. 4. Here's a quick look at what happened:

**New Brockton toyed with Florala before cruising to an easy win over the hapless Wildcats. The Gamecocks were supposed to be in a rebuilding year, but have rebuilt in a hurry and appear to have another solid program. Look for New Brockton to keep on winning as the season progresses.

**Zion Chapel is coming close to winning, but the Rebels just can't seem to get the right combination. Zion Chapel has shown steady improvement in each game and has moved the ball well - it simply hasn't been able to put points on the board when it gets in close to the goal line. Rebel fans need to keep the faith: the wins are coming.

**Kinston suffered a big loss to Samson and it appears the Bulldogs will have to play their best in all four quarters to claim a win. The Bulldogs have some good, young players that are gaining experience every week, and sooner or later the youngsters are going to see how good it feels to win and go on a tear. Don't give up guys - better days are ahead!

A LOOK AROUND THE STATE AT THE TEAMS NOT IN THE NEWS

The headlines of sports pages across the state are filled each week with the teams that are winning big and are ranked in the weekly prep polls. I'll admit the teams deserve the publicity, but this week I'm going to give the other guys a little ink. Here goes...

CLASS 1A - West Jefferson (0-4) has been outscored 131-15 in 4 games and is probably the worst team in the class, while Waterloo is running a close last, having been outscored 117-29. The surprise team has been McKenzie, which defeated Brantley to open the season, only to lose its next three games by a combined score of 61-12.

CLASS 2A - Collinsville is winless at 0-4, and having been outscored 144-49 is battling with Florala for the bottom spot. Florala, once a football power, also stands 0-4 and has been outscored 155-53. Ouch!

CLASS 3A - The big up-sets in this class is Gordo, the defending state champs who have lost four straight games by a combined score of 108-26. Gordo has played a tough schedule, but losses are losses. Despite its record, Gordo isn't near the worst team in the class - that honor is claimed by Douglas, which has lost four games by a combined score of 100-6, with Louisville in a close race, having lost games by a score of 106-02.

CLASS 4A - It's not too hard to pick the worst team in this class! That dubious honor has to go to Beaufort, which has lost four games by a combined score of 68-7. Other teams having trouble are Slocomb, pushing to the bottom with losses totaling 99-12 and Colbert Heights with losses of 112-20.

CLASS 5A - Childersburg almost won early in the season, but lost and has since lost by a combined score of 106-12 to earn the honor. Other noteworthy teams having problems include Williamson, which has losses of 113-28 and Muscogee, with losses of 55-14. Teams without losses that are famous for winning big include Greenville and Bibb County.

CLASS 6A - The big school division always fields teams with lopsided records and the wide variance in population, and this season's early bettor County include Arab, with losses of 116-48, Berry with losses of 65-21 and Dothan with losses of 116-47. It's a strange year!

YE OLE POLISH PROGNOSTICATOR LOOKS AHEAD

Ye ole Polish Prognosticator had another very good week hitting on 27 of 30 picks. The week there are several tossups to consider, so I've turned things over to my trusty crystal ball. Here's what it says...

ELBA VS. PIKE COUNTY

The Tigers are reeling after three straight losses and must find a way to score if things are ever going to get better. Pike County has a young team with loads of enthusiasm, and just the mention of Elba gets the 'Dogs foaming at the mouth! I've got a feeling this may be the week the Tigers finally put it all together, but the crystal ball says not.

KINSTON VS. LONG

It's Homecoming at Kinston and the winless Bulldogs are hoping all the hoopla will wake up the Dogs! Kinston has enough talent to win at any time, but it looks like a Long night from here.

NEW BROCKTON VS. RED LEVEL

The competition stiffens a little for the Gamecocks as the talented Tigers will come to town looking for a win. Red Level will give New Brockton all it's got; however, this one looks like another big win for the high-flying Gamecocks!

ZION CHAPEL VS. COFFEE SPRINGS

It's a good thing you can't compare scores, because Arton defeated the Rebels 9-7, while Coffee Springs clobbered Arton 41-2. The Rebels have been coming close for a couple of weeks, and since it's Homecoming anything could happen. I'm leaning toward a big upset, but I'll play it safe and pick the Bears.

Elba Tigers In Tailspin, Fall To Opp 16-0 For 3rd Straight Loss

ELBA CHEERLEADER WHITNEY WISE keeps the fans spirits high as the Tigers battle against the Opp Bobcats.

The sputtering Elba offense failed to put any points on the scoreboard for the second straight game last Friday night as the Tigers were blanked by the Opp Bobcats 16-0 in front of a standing-room-only crowd at Elba's Miller Memorial Stadium.

The loss, Elba's third straight after a season-opening win, dropped the Tigers' record to 1-3, while Opp improved its slate to 3-1 with the win.

The highly contested contest got off to a rather uneventful start as neither team could threaten offensively. Opp managed two first downs in its initial three possessions, while Elba saw fumbles slow two drives and kill a third.

Opp put the ball in play at the 37-yard line following a short 19-yard punt, and on first down went for the distance and connected as quarterback Russ Atkins lofted a pass to O.B. Teague, who was wide open and waltzed untouched into the end zone for a Bobcat touchdown!

Teague's pattern was designed to go the distance; however, an Elba defensive back fell down on the play and left the speedy receiver all alone. Jamey Dubose added the extra point, and all of a sudden Opp owned a 7-0 lead with 5:46 left in the second quarter.

A 14-yard gain on a fumble and a 15-yard penalty against Elba gave the Bobcats another scoring opportunity late in the half as Opp reached the Elba 21-yard line; however, the Tiger defense stiffened and on fourth down Dubose's 37-yard field-goal attempt fell short.

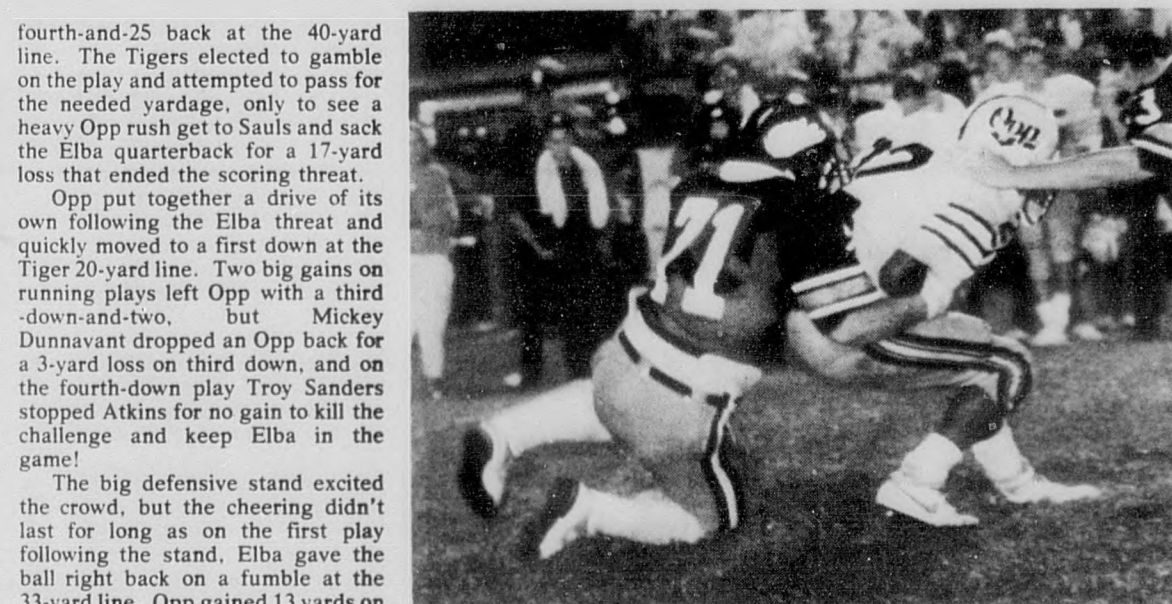

A penalty and three running plays left Elba facing a fourth-down-and-10 at the 20, and on the play to give Opp a safety and a 9-0 lead with only :42 left in the half.

Elba's offense, which totaled only 36 yards in the first half, showed a sign of life in the third quarter as the Tigers took the opening kick and began a drive that reached a first down at the Opp 25-yard line!

A 13-yard pass from Stan Sauls to Bill Brueckner and an 18-yard scamper by Richard McKinnon keyed the march, but when two running plays gained only three yards and a third-down run resulted in a loss and a dead ball 15-yard penalty, Elba was facing a at the 8-yard line!

A fumble recovery by Kevin Killingsworth gave the Tigers new life at the Opp-32, and a 13-yard pass from Sauls to Brueckner got the Tigers close, but a fumble slowed the march and the drive fizzled away as two passes fell incomplete.

Elba got the ball back for one last drive late in the game and seemed determined to get on the scoreboard, but saw the final chance slip away when Troy Kelley caught a Sauls pass at the Bobcat 2-yard line, but lost the handle on the ball when hit and Opp recovered to preserve the shutout win!

Richard McKinnon gained 57 yards on 14 carries to lead the Tiger ground game, while Bill Brueckner caught 3 passes for 34 yards. Opp's Marcus Jones gained 62 yards on 11 carries to pace Opp.

Elba To Battle Pike County Friday Night

The Elba Tigers will be hoping to put the kinks on a three-game losing streak Friday night when they travel to Brundidge to battle the talented Pike County Bulldogs in the renewal of one of the state's most hotly contested high school football rivalries.

The two perennial powers have met on the gridiron a total of 4 times the past two years, with each team winning twice. In 1984, Pike County lost to Elba in the regular season only to win in the playoffs, while in 1985 it was Elba which lost the first meeting and claimed the playoff win. The only sure thing when the Tigers and Bulldogs tangle is that a battle will occur!

"Pike County has got a very good football team with loads of ability," warned Elba's Coach Mack Wood. "They've got as many athletes as any team on our schedule and are as good as ever. We've got our work cut out for us!"

"The Pike County offense runs the ball well and isn't afraid to pass," said Wood. "They have a good tailback, a real quick quarterback and a host of speedy receivers. Pike County is just as quick as ever and can score at any time from anywhere on the field."

"Over on defense, they still use a split 4-0 and come at you from all over the field. They're quick and very aggressive on defense."

The Pike County offense, which has scored 26 points in three games, has been a running team, led by freshman Steven Coleman and sophomores Fred Holland and Clint Foster. Coleman has gained 200 yards on 32 carries to lead the 'Dogs, while Holland has added 188 yards on 34 carries, and Foster has rushed for over 100 yards.

Holland has completed only 6 of 21 passes for 89 yards; however, he has the ability to throw the ball long and keeps defenses honest with his scrambling ability.

The Bulldog defense has allowed 54 points in three games, but held Opp to only one touchdown, and can give opposing defenses fits with its blitzing attack.

The leader on defense is senior Matthew Wilson, who is averaging 12 tackles a game.

"For us to win against Pike County we'll have to play harder than ever because of the many things they do on both sides of the ball," stated Wood.

"On offense we'll have to play a good, smart game and try to contain their speed. If we make a mistake it will cost us six points. So we've got to be alert."

When asked about last week's 16-0 loss to Opp, Coach Wood said, "I felt like we could win, but we made too many mistakes to beat a good team. I was proud of our effort!"

"The defense had two breakdowns, but still played a pretty good football game. The defense played real physical and hit hard and I was proud of the way they never quit."

"The offense showed a better effort, but must play as a team and must play better at the point of attack. It seems that somebody has a breakdown on every play!"

WOULD BE FLORALA TACKLERS take a ride as New Brockton's Varrick Hayes (42) fights for yardage in the Gamecocks' 49-26 win last week.

New Brockton Outscores Florala 49-26

By: JENNIFER CAMPBELL

The New Brockton Gamecocks were off to the races last Friday night as they traveled to Florala to do battle with the 2A Wildcats. The two teams played on equal terms in the first half with New Brockton carrying a narrow 15-7 lead into the break and pulling away in the second half to claim the 49-26 win. Recording their third straight victory following an opening season loss to Daleville, the Gamecocks have pushed their record to 3-1 on the year.

Neither team was able to get their offense started early on as they swapped punts on their initial possessions. Florala's second attempt ended in a 28-yard punt that gave New Brockton excellent field position on the Wildcats' 48-yard line. It took the Gamecocks seven plays to convert the 48 yards to paydirt, with halfback Varrick Hayes carrying the final two yards. Hayes also had a 17-yard ramble to spark the drive.

Other contributors were Myron Williams who had 13 yards on two carries while Donnie Smith added 16 yards on three attempts. On the p.a.t. attempt two off-sides penalties against Florala pushed the ball inside the one-yard line and New Brockton elected to go for two. Myron Williams drew the call and went in standing up to give the Gamecocks an 8-0 lead with 0:08 remaining in the first quarter.

The Florala drive that followed

NEW BROCKTON'S MYRON WILLIAMS (26) heads for paydirt against Florala as teammate Tom Gibson (87) blocks the last would be tackler.

ended when a New Brockton defensive player fell on a Kevin Mulkey fumble at the New Brockton 44-yard line, with 9:01 left in the half. A personal foul penalty against New Brockton handed the Wildcats a third-and-18, and when the third down play came up short they punted the ball away, only to get it back two plays later on another Wildcat fumble. This time New Brockton took over on the Florala 24-yard line. It took only two tries to reach the end zone as Varrick Hayes raced 56 yards on the final play of the third quarter to record his second touchdown of the night. Toby Lee was on target with the extra point and New Brockton pulled out 35-20.

After a 24-yard return by Florala's Shannon Clark the Wildcats struck again the distance in three plays as Martez Brennon carried the last 55 yards to paydirt. The two-point conversion attempt was stopped short of the goal line and with 10:19 remaining in the game the score was still close at 35-26.

Following the Wildcat kick and a 15-yard return by Williams, the Gamecocks were in good field position on their own 41-yard line. The duo of 426 and 442 moved the ball down the field in 5 plays with Williams carrying the final three yards for the score. With the p.a.t. the Gamecocks were beginning to take control of what had been a hair-raising second half. With 8:15 to play they owned it 42-26 lead.

Unable to move the ball, Florala punted it away and New Brockton began their final scoring drive of the night. This drive was sparked by the running of reserve back Donnie Smith who rolled up 36 yards on two carries. Myron Williams ran around left end for the final 26 yards and with Lee's p.a.t. the Gamecocks had sealed the win with a 49-26 margin with only 4:44 to play.

Florala's next drive stalled and New Brockton took over on downs and pushed the ball all the way to the Wildcat 34-yard line before they turned it over on downs, with 20 on the clock which ran down before another play was attempted.

New Brockton's Varrick Hayes led all rushers with 247 yards on 17 carries, and 2 touchdowns. Also sparking the Gamecock running attack were Myron Williams who recorded 162 yards on 14 carries and four touchdowns, while Donnie Smith added 59 yards on 7 attempts. Tony Stone led the Florala running attack with 88 yards on 11 carries and Kevin Mulkey added 87 yards on 9 carries, plus a 35-yard kickoff return.

New Brockton returns home this Friday night to host Red Level at 7:30 p.m.

Zion Chapel Falls To 0-4, Lose To Straughn Tigers 20-8

ZION CHAPEL'S Thomas Boswell (24) fights for the goal line in the Rebels' 20-8 loss last week to Straughn.

HAVE A SEAT! Zion Chapel's Thomas Boswell (24) is pulled down for a short gain in last week's loss to Straughn.

By: DANNY BELCHER

Close only counts in horseshoes, unfortunately, and for the Zion Chapel Rebels three close encounters with the Straughn goal line ended in only one touchdown as the Tigers defeated the Rebels 20-8 Friday night at Straughn.

The loss dropped Zion Chapel's record to 0-4, while the win upped Straughn's slate to 3-1.

The 2A rivals saw the defense rule the game for much of the first quarter, with Straughn finally getting on track late in the stanza on its way to a 9-play, 73-yard touchdown march. Steven Carter ate up large chunks of yardage during the drive, while the score came when the Tiger wingback took the handoff on a reverse and scampered in from 15 yards out. The p.a.t. was accurate and with 10:25 left in the first half Straughn owned a 7-0 lead.

The Tiger score seemed to wake up the Rebels, and Zion Chapel took the ensuing kick and put together its first offensive drive of the game! The Rebel march was highlighted by the running of Sean Collins and Thomas Boswell and reached the Straughn 5-yard line; however, the drive bogged down at the 5, and on fourth down a Rebel pass fell incomplete to kill the threat.

Zion Chapel came out ready to play in the second half and wasted no time in getting on the scoreboard, as on the first play following the kickoff the Rebels' Brian McLeod raced 80 yards for a touchdown! Thomas Boswell added the 2-point conversion on a run, and with only 14 gone in the second half Zion Chapel had grabbed the lead at 8-7!

An offside penalty on fourth down gave Straughn new life on its ensuing possession and the Rebel mistake led to a Tiger score. The touchdown came on a 26-yard scamper by Russell Gunter with 7:03 left in the quarter and the p.a.t. gave the Tigers the lead back at 14-8.

Straughn extended its lead to 20-8 with 2:25 left in the quarter when Steven Carter climaxed a 54-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge, but the Rebels weren't about to quit and threatened on their next possession. The Rebels marched all the way to the Tiger 2-yard line, but failed to cash in on the opportunity, and at the final horn Straughn had the win 20-8.

Steven Carter gained 233 yards on 41 carries to lead Straughn, outgaining the entire Zion Chapel team, which combined for 193 yards rushing and 32 yards passing.

KINSTON QUARTERBACK Dodd Hawthorne (12) rolls out and eyes the defense in action last week against Samson.

Kinston Losing Streak Continues As 'Dogs Fall To Samson 22-0

By: GREG BRUNSON

The Samson Bulldogs combined a big play offense with a stingy defense this past Friday night to post an impressive 22-0 victory over the Kinston Bulldogs. The Bulldogs had 19 snaps from inside the Samson 20-yard line, only to come away empty, suffering their first shutout of the season.

The Tigers wasted little time in lighting up the scoreboard. After a Kinston punt was downed at the 32-yard line, Samson put together a 13-play drive that covered the 68 yards to the end zone. The touchdown came with 3:37 to play in the first quarter as Michael Bowers took a pitchout and raced 11 yards around right end. A run for two failed, leaving the score Samson 6 - Kinston 0.

Travis Carnley booted a beautiful 53-yard punt to end the next Kinston possession, setting the Tigers deep in their own territory. On the next snap Michael Bragg punched on a Samson fumble at the 19-yard line. The Bulldogs wasted this chance as they threw an interception on third down.

Samson took over and quickly marched upfield. Terry Tape carried the last 28 yards on runs of 20 and then an 8-yard touchdown jaunt off right tackle. This capped an 11-play drive with the score coming with 8:16 left in the half. Joel Phillips ran for the two-point conversion to make Samson's lead 14-0.

Kinston took over and behind the rushing of Todd Hawthorne and passing of Dodd Hawthorne moved deep into Tiger territory only to have this drive stall at the Samson 16-yard line.

Three plays later, Michael Bragg got his second fumble recovery of the night, giving Kinston the ball at the Samson 29. The Bulldogs moved the one first down before the Tiger defense rose to the occasion and sacked Hawthorne on a third-and-16 play from the 18-yard line.

The Tigers made the most of this last possession of the half as they put together a 5-play drive covering 66 yards. Billy Harrison took a handoff then threw back to the quarterback, Lamar Daniels, who got into the end zone from 11 yards out as the halftime horn sounded. Tape added the 2-point conversion, making the Samson lead 22-0.

The second half opened much as the first half ended. Samson took the kickoff and drove for 10 plays before the Kinston defense stiffened to take over on downs at their own 38-yard line.

The next Samson possession ended in a fine interception by Scott Jacobs who returned the ball 30 yards to the Tigers' 20-yard line. Four rushes netted the Bulldogs only 5 yards so the ball went over on downs at the 15-yard line.

A 32-yard punt by Samson gave Kinston excellent field position at the 50-yard line. The Bulldogs held the ball for 18 plays only to be stopped again inside the Tigers' 20, this time at the 7.

From this point the Tigers drove the length of the field to the Bulldogs' 1-foot line. After a time out with 0:06 remaining, Keith Hill was trapped for a 3-yard loss as the game ended. Final score - Samson 22 - Kinston 0.

Bulldog Defense Shines As Brantley Blanks Goshen Eagles 7-0

By: BILLY WAYNE WILLIAMSON

The Brantley Bulldogs scored early and held on to post an impressive 7-0 win over the 2A Goshen Eagles Friday night at Goshen.

The win evened Brantley's record at 2-2, while Goshen slipped to 1-3 with the loss, the Eagles' third straight.

Both teams fumbled early to kill potential offensive threats and it was a Goshen mistake that set up the Bulldog score! The Brantley break came when the Eagles attempted to punt, only to have a bad snap, giving the ball to the Bulldogs at the Eagle 45-yard line. A 9-yard run by Doug Salter got the Bulldogs off to a quick start and a 16-yard run by Salter moved the 'Dogs to the 16-yard line.

An 11-yard jaunt by Chad Kilcrease put Brantley at the 1-yard line, and on the next play Salter bulled over to give the Bulldogs all the points they would need! Salter also added the extra point, giving Brantley a 7-0 lead with 2:33 left in the first quarter.

Brantley began another drive late in the half and marched to the Goshen 34-yard line behind the running of Salter, Anthony Elland and Lebron Upshaw, only to lose a fumble that killed the scoring opportunity.

Goshen came to life following the Bulldog fumble and drove to a first down at the Brantley 7-yard line. A 30-yard pass from Al Williamson to Robin Snyder was the big play in the drive; however, Brantley's Ronnie Johnson recovered an Eagle fumble on the first play after the long pass and the Eagles had to settle for nothing!

Goshen did drive to the Bulldog 35-yard line late in the third quarter following another Brantley fumble, but the "Big Green" defense rose to the challenge and stopped the Eagles to preserve the slim lead. The Brantley offense failed to mount any serious threat in the second half, but the defense earned its keep, and an interception by Giles Bryan late in the game sealed the hard-fought win for the 'Dogs! Doug Salter gained 104 yards on 20 carries to lead Brantley, while Chad Kilcrease added 31 yards on 8 carries.

Tony Alcuri and his wood carvings

Alcuri Adds Woodwork To Hobby List

Toni Alcuri, a resident of Rotoon, has added another dimension to a life of varied activities during his 70 years -- he is doing woodcraft and recently opened his own shop at his home in Rotoon.

A native of New York, Alcuri moved to Rotoon in 1946 with his wife Nettie Dickey who is from that area.

"We moved back to New York once," Alcuri said, "but I told my wife it was not for us -- so we came back to Rotoon."

Alcuri retired from Ft. Rucker after 26 years of work, and before that worked at Perry Owens's Garage, with the state, and with Dorsey Trailers. He also helped build the glove factory in Rotoon in 1954 and worked there.

"Rotoon used to be a big booming town," he said. "There was a factory that ran all the time and stores; a lot going on. It was a big town then."

His woodcraft shop is now filling a lot of his time. "I cut out the designs and sand them, and my daughter-in-law Cheryl paints and decorates them for me," he said. "I try different patterns and come up with some interesting things."

He is also designing baskets, napkin holders and wall pieces and plans to participate in the Arts and Crafts Show in Brundidge.

He also grows gourds as a hobby, as many as 400 a year. He then cuts the gourds for use as nests for martins.

"You can plant gourd seeds in January or February and harvest them in early fall," Alcuri said. "They are good to decorate with, either plain or painted, and they come in different sizes and shapes."

Alcuri said he likes it in south Alabama and calls it home. "I've been here a long time and made my first home here."

"I was running a gas pump down at what used to be called Beck's Mill. William Caldwell was my first customer. He gave me a $2 bill to pay for his gas. I framed it and still have it."

Peanut Recipes

Let's start where it all begins, from the peanut patch!

There are many ways to utilize peanuts in the raw form. The peanut producers of Alabama have made available this collection of recipes for your enjoyment. The next time your plans call for peanuts, try one or more of these suggestions. Peanuts in the raw are available, so don't hesitate to ask your local grocer.

ALABAMA BOILED PEANUTS

Wash peanuts thoroughly in cool water; then soak in clean water for about 30 minutes before cooking. Put peanuts in a saucepan and cover completely with water. Add 1 tablespoon salt for each pint of peanuts.

The cooking period for boiled peanuts varies according to the maturity of the peanuts used and the variety of the peanut. The cooking time for a "freshly-pulled" green peanut is shorter than for a peanut which has been stored for a time. The best way to prepare them is to cook them as soon as they are picked.

There is no firm method for cooking boiled peanuts. The shells of some peanuts absorb more salt than others, so it is best to begin with 1 tablespoon of salt per pint of peanuts. Then add more salt to taste later. The texture of the peanut when fully cooked should be similar to that of a cooked dry pea or bean. Boil the peanuts for about 35 minutes, then taste. If they are not salted enough, add more salt. Taste again in ten minutes, both for salt content and to see if the peanuts are fully cooked. If not ready, continue tasting every five minutes until they have a satisfactory texture.

Drain peanuts after cooking, or they will continue to absorb salt and become over-salted. To have boiled peanuts year round, you can freeze them. Package the cooled peanuts, without the brine, in moisture-vapor-proof freezer containers. Keep peanuts stored at 0 degrees F. or lower. When ready to eat, remove from freezer and thaw.

Janice Moates, district secretary, Coffee County Soil and Water Conservation District, was honored as outstanding district secretary for Area 5 at a recent program held at Lake Tholocco on Ft. Rucker. She has worked with the district for nine years, and is a secretary-treasurer for the Forestry Advisory Committee. She and her husband David have one daughter, Amber, and own a farm on the Bellwood Road, south of Enterprise. She is the daughter of Clara Averett and the late Dolan Averett. Janice stated, "I enjoy working for the District and the Soil Conservation Service, and meeting with the people of Coffee County, whether it be a farmer with a conservation problem or a landowner with an erosion problem in their yard."

Recipes, Con'd

DEEP FRYING

*Fill deep fat fryer or large saucepan 1/2 full with peanut oil. Preheat oil 350 degrees F.
*Fill collander or deep fat frying basket 1/2 full of raw peanuts.
*Submerge in hot oil. Let fry until raw peanuts start to turn light brown. Peanuts will continue cooking after they are removed from heat. Do not overcook.
*Drain on paper towels, sprinkle with salt. Serve warm or store in glass containers with air tight lids.
*For an unusual snack, add 1/4 tsp. garlic powder or chili powder for each cup of peanuts.

SUGARED NUTS

1 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup water
2 cups raw shelled peanuts (with skins on)

Disolve sugar in water in separate over-medium heat. Add peanuts and continue to cook over medium heat, stirring frequently. Cook until peanuts are completely sugared and coated and no syrup is used. Pour onto ungreased cookie sheet, spreading so that peanuts are separated as much as possible. Bake at 300 degrees F. for approximately 30 minutes, stirring at five minutes intervals.

DIXIE PEANUT BRITTLE

2 cups granulated sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup water
1 tsp. salt
2Tbsp. butter
4 cups raw peanuts, skins on
2 tsp. baking soda

In a heavy saucepan heat sugar, syrup, and water and salt to a rolling boil. Add peanuts. Reduce heat to medium and stir constantly. Cook until syrup spins a thread (293 degrees F.) Add butter, then baking soda. Beat rapidly and pour on a buttered surface spreading to 1/4 inch thickness. When cool break into pieces.

Directions for using a food processor.

Using the metal blade, process ingredients continuously for 2 or 3 minutes. The ground peanuts will form a ball which will slowly disappear. Stop machine. Scrape sides of a container with a rubber spatula. Continue to process until the desired smoothness is obtained.

Store in a tightly closed container and refrigerate. Upon standing the oil may rise to the top. In this case, stir before using. Makes 1 cup smooth or 1 1/2 cups chunky peanut butter.

Peanuts with red skins may be used. (Do not confuse skins with outer shells). The resulting tiny flecks do not affect the flavor.

How much peanut butter?

Approximately 2 cups peanuts ground will yield 1 cup peanut butter.

Other helpful hints

Approximately 1 1/2 pounds unshelled peanuts = 1 pound shelled = 3/4 cups. Approximately 5 ounces shelled peanuts = 1 cup.

Peanut brittle (Microwave)

1 cup raw peanuts
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup white corn syrup
1/8 tsp. salt
1 tsp. butter
1 tsp. vanilla
1 tsp. baking soda

In a 1 1/2 qt. casserole stir together peanuts, syrup, sugar, and salt.

IMPORTANT: PEANUT STORAGE

To maintain best eating quality, peanuts need protection from insects and from high temperatures that may cause the fat in the nuts to become rancid. For prolonged storage, keep them in a cool dry place at or below 70 degrees F. (Peanuts kept indefinitely frozen in a tightly closed container.)

For short-term storage, keep them in a cool dry place at or below 70 degrees F. (Peanuts kept indefinitely frozen in a tightly closed container.)

For long-term storage, keep them in a cool dry place at or below 70 degrees F. (Peanuts kept indefinitely frozen in a tightly closed container.)

Round And About With Eria

I exhort therefore that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks be made for all men for kings and for all that are in authority that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of our God and our Father who is the Father of all men who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Tim. 2:1-6

VISITING MRS. AMANDA TILLIS
Amanda McBride Tillis was born December 18, 1921, in Coffee County, Elba, to the late McDonald "Scrop" McBride and the late Lillie Mae Jackson McBride.
She was married to the late Willard "Erick" Tillis, and they had 11 children: Edward Tillis, Mae Ruth Hester, Flora Phillips, Willie C. Sarah Frances Stoudimire, Kathlene Burks, Wilfred Head, Charlie B., Sarah Nell Lawrence, Lathorn, and Alean Sims.
She was educated in Rosinwald School (Five Points) and Oak Grove School, Elba. She is a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church, Elba, where she is a member and treasurer of the Missionary Society. She is employed at Covington Industries, Opp.

A friendly voice at the other end of my telephone made a big difference when I called for an interview with Mrs. "Mandy." Then the friendly voice said, "Sure, come on out. I'm at home." I knew then that the talk would be interesting and informative - and it was.
"You enjoyed farming?" I asked.
"Yes, I really did," she said. "It was hard work! Sometimes the crops were good and then again they didn't turn out good at all. But that was how we made our living."
"We worked on shares or halves. My parents did the best they could for their children, and at that time farming was hard on the day."

"When the school year began we had to walk. The roads were muddy. The schoolhouse was heated with a wood-burning heater, and you would burn on one side and freeze on the other trying to keep warm!"
"We took lunches in syrup buckets and paper sacks (bags). Our food was biscuits with syrup, fried sweet potatoes and some type of meat. It was good though."
"After my husband died I had a vegetable garden consisting of peas, butterbeans, turnips, collards and watermelons. But now I am working at Opp Industries, and I don't have the time to farm any at all."

"God is blessing me right now and I'm still able to water, go to church and enjoy the company of my children and grandchildren. I'm really blessed. My favorite song is 'Lord, I'm Depending on You.'"
In visiting Mrs. Tillis, she showed me hospitality at its best - Southern hospitality.
You were most kind, Mandy.

Consider the hammer - It keeps its head. It doesn't fly off the handle. It finds its point and then drives it home. It looks at the other side too and thus often clinches the matter. It makes mistakes, but when it does it starts all over. It is the only knocker in the world That does any good.

NURSING HOME SPOTLIGHT

With Shirley Wise

With this week fall begins. Where did the summer go? Seasons come and go so much quicker than they did in the past - or so it seems! Reckon age has anything to do with it?

At any rate, today is Sept. 25, 1986, and we're visiting a couple at the Elba Nursing Home this week by the name of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hartley of the Chestnut Grove Community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley were feeling, especially "under the weather" Sunday afternoon and were unable to talk with us, so we'll get to know them through the loving eyes of two of their daughters - Willie Mae Brown of the Chestnut Grove Community and Mary Jo Berry of Dothan.

Mrs. Hartley is the former Lilliar Mae Grantham, who was born May 22, 1909. Her parents were James Nathaniel Grantham and Mary Elizabeth Augusta Bessant, whose ancestors came from the Carolinas. They were both born in Coffee County and are buried at Hixson.

Mr. Grantham was a farmer. He played the fiddle for square dances, and Miss Lilliar has a picture of him with his fiddle and a long, blondish beard. He died at the age of 29, when Miss Lilliar was 7.

Miss Lilliar's mother died when she was 13 years old, and she lived with her older sister and two older brothers and their families until her marriage at the age of 16.

Miss Lilliar's sister and two brothers, all of whom are deceased, are: Eva Mae Bundy, who was married to the late Freeman Bundy and they resided in Trenton;

Fletcher, called Fletch, whose wife Clara, makes her home in Enterprise; and Christopher, whose wife, the former Pearlina Sheffield, lives in Enterprise.

An amusing incident Willie Mae and Mary Jo shared with us from their mother's memory was of the time "when Mama was living with the Uncle Fletch and Aunt Clara and they'd had company for supper. Mama told us she was going to clean up the kitchen for Aunt Clara, so she stacked up all the dishes and had the cups on her fingers, walking across the kitchen with them when she dropped and broke all the dishes! They had to eat off syrup can lids until they could get to town and buy some more dishes!"

The girls (Willie Mae and Mary Jo) remember Miss Lilliar as having "real, dark-brown hair which she always wore in a ball on her head, brown eyes, and she was very short, barely 5 feet and plump. Just before she came to the nursing home she had her hair cut short and a permanent put in. She'd always wanted to, but had never done it, 'cause Daddy liked it the way it was."

Miss Lilliar belongs to the Dorcas Baptist Church in the Chestnut Grove Community. She worked as a cook at Zion Chapel High School for several years in the 50's while her children were attending school there.

The girls told us that "pink" was their mother's favorite color. When we asked Miss Lilliar, she replied "pink" also; they said "she liked all country cooking - she was a good cook" and her favorite flower "just all pretty flowers - she always had flowers and pot plants growing and enjoyed working with them." Her favorite season would be "spring." "Christmas" her favorite holiday, "because she always wanted all of us to come home and be together to eat Christmas dinner, and if we couldn't come then, she wanted us all to come Christmas Eve." Included in her hobbies are: "quilting, cooking, working in her yard, looking after her family and visiting her neighbors - she loved people."

Willie Mae and Mary Jo shared the following with us about Miss Lilliar: "She was a good Christian woman - she loved her church and her children. Her family meant a lot to her. She was a good neighbor, always helping put up preserves, etc. She was always a real hard worker remembered working in the fields for 15 cents a day." Oh, can you imagine that? It makes me hurt!

When we asked if she or Mr. Hartley was the strict parent, Willie Mae and Mary Jo laughed and agreed that "Mama had to get on us children occasionally and whip us - Daddy never did; he told you something and you just knew to do it!"

On July 18, 1926, Miss Lilliar wed Mr. Daniel. The girls said they remembered their mother telling them they "were married in front of Sanders' Store which was located just beyond the Zion Chapel Baptist Church, but which is no longer in existence. They were sitting in the rumble seat of an old car and the Justice of the Peace came out and married them while they were sitting in the car."

Now we'll become acquainted with Mr. Daniel Dewey Hartley. Mr. Daniel was born May 31, 1906, the son of Isaac K. and Lula Dillard Hartley, both of whom were born in Pike County and are buried at Center Ridge, but whose ancestors were originally from Georgia.

Mr. Daniel's paternal grandfather, Isaac F. Hartley, who was originally from Ft. Gaines, Ga., served in the Civil War under Hilliard's Legion, Co. 3, 11 Battalion, and fought at Chattanooga and Missionary Ridge.

He and the other men in Hilliard's Legion walked to Montgomery from Brundidge to Mr. Isaac F. was injured in the war and the girls said Mr. Daniel had told them his grandfather lived with them (Mr. Daniel's family) when Mr. Daniel was a small child; and he could remember his parents bringing his grandfather to Elba to pick up his monthly pension check.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hartley (Lilliar)

There is a family story which has been passed down that this same Mr. Isaac's parents owned a large plantation in Ft. Gaines, Ga., and that he was disinherited because he married an Indian girl, Sara Jane Bucklew, so he came to Alabama.

The brothers and sisters of Mr. Daniel, all of whom are deceased, with the exception of one, are: Ode Swain, who lives in Phenix City with her husband Jack;

L.J., whose wife Selma lives in Phenix City;

Fred, who lived in the Chestnut Grove Community with his wife Dorothy, also deceased;

Annie Bell, who was married to George Swain and they resided in New Brooklyn; and Johnnie Mae and Maude Lee, who died as children.

Mr. Daniel has one living aunt, Aunt Rosie, who resides in the Spring Hill Community.

The girls remember Mr. Daniel telling them he helped build the Troy-Elba highway and made $8 a month, and when he was working on the highway he had to walk to work from his home. He farmed for many years and has also worked in the sawmills.

Another fond memory his daughters have of Mr. Daniel was when he went to Florida to cut timber, he would bring them back a sack of oranges, and sometimes they said, if the timber-cutting was slack down there, he would pick oranges to make some money.

Another memory from Willie Mae and Mary Jo: "We remember getting off the bus after school at Mr. and Mrs. Foss Tillman's store in the Chestnut Grove Community and Daddy would let all of us who were in school at the time, get candy, soft drinks, etc., and charge it, and he'd go pay for it on Saturday. On Friday he would go get groceries and bring us back candy in little sacks, and we'd divide it among us."

They remember him telling them this cute little story: "Daddy attended the Dyess School, located in the Wilkinstown vicinity, and he didn't like it - he'd put a little face powder on his face and told him if he cried it would come off and leave his face streaked, so he didn't cry any more - and went on to school."

The girls remember their father in his younger days as being quite tall and slim with black hair and brown eyes.

Mr. Daniel is pretty fond of overalls! So much so, in fact, that he expressly told his children they better put overalls on him when he died because he wanted to be buried in them!

Some favorites of Mr. Daniel's is the "rose," the color "red," "spring" is his favorite time of the year. "Christmas" is also his favorite holiday; favorite foods are "chicken stew, Mama's biscuits, and Mama's apple cake - she kept him an apple cake made" and his hobbies were "watching wrestling, smoking his pipe and working on cars. Daddy was a 'shadetree mechanic' and could fix just about anything."

Laughing, they told us that he "smoked Prince Albert and he always saved his cans - we've still got some of them - and we'd take the can and cut it into narrow strips and wrap it with paper and use for rollers! It would make your hair curly alright - that is, if you could stand the pain! If women today think brush curlers hurt, they should try those strips of P.A. tobacco cans!"

About their father, they said, "Daddy was well-liked by everybody in the neighborhood. He was always helping somebody out, too - just like Mama. He was a hard worker all his life; real easy-going and likable. He was a good father. We were lucky - we had good parents."

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley have been married 60 years and are the patriarch and matriarch of a family of 10 children, having started their family in 1927 and having their last child in 1947 - a 20-year span.

The 10 children of Mr. Daniel and Miss Lilliar honored their parents with a 50th wedding anniversary reception 10 years ago in their home in the Zion Chapel Community, where they lived prior to living with Willie Mae and coming to the nursing home.

Their children are: Ruby, who is married to Henry Killingsworth. They live in Brantley, Georgia. Miss Ruby is a homemaker and Mr. Henry is disabled. They are the parents of four children, including one deceased, and have two grandchildren.

Elouise was married to the late John Killingsworth and resides in the Chestnut Grove Community. She is a homemaker and Mr. John before his death, was a sawmill worker and was employed with Dorsey Trailers. She is the mother of 10 children, including a set of twins who were born prematurely and died; she has eight grandchildren.

Edgar H., who is married to the former Sue Thrash. They make their home in Brundidge where Mr. Edgar is now employed with Dickert Lumber Co. and Sue works at Edge Hospital in Troy in the ICU and she is a volunteer rescue squad member.

At different times they operated a flower shop and a restaurant in Brundidge. They are the parents of three children and have four grandchildren.

Inez is married to R.C. Boutwell and they live near Wilkinstown. She is a homemaker and Mr. R.C. is a farmer and welder. Years ago he worked at the cotton mill in Phenix City.

Veneria is married to the late Irey Boutwell. She lives in Troy and is a homemaker. Before his death, Mr. Irey was employed with the cotton mill in Phenix City. She has four children and is grandmother to five.

Willie Mae is married to James J. Brown and they reside in the Chestnut Grove Community. At present she is unemployed, but has worked at Kleinert's and Pike-Alatex in Troy. Before Mr. and Mrs. Hartley came to the nursing home in July of this year, she cared for them in her home for a year. Mr. Brown is presently unemployed, but is a long-distance truck driver and has done construction work.

There was a set of twins - boy and girl - born between Willie Mae and Mary Jo, but were premature and died.

Mary Jo is the Hartley's next child and she and her husband Mac and Mary Jo live in Dothan. She is a homemaker and James now drives a dolly Madison cake truck after having managed Piggly Wiggly grocery stores for 20 years. They have four children and three grandchildren.

Effie Joe is married to Randolph Bray and they reside in Troy. They have four children: houses and Mr. Berry is maintenance man for Gals Gas of Eufaula. They have two children, who are still in school.

Vernon is unmarried and lives on the old family home place in the Chestnut Grove Community, which is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harper Tillman. He is self-employed and in the early '70's he worked in the cotton mill in Phenix City.

Edward too is unmarried and lives on the old family home place. He is also self-employed and also worked in the cotton mill in Phenix City in the early '70's.

All the above give Mr. and Mrs. Hartley 32 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren, who lovingly call them "Granny," "Grandma" and "Granddaddy."

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley have always lived in Coffee County except for 7.8 years when they lived with Vernon and Edward in Phenix City when the boys were employed at the cotton mill.

The girls recalled their parents sharing with the children their memories from long ago and almost-forgotten times of peanut shelling, square dances and taffy pulling parties.

In summing up theirs and their parents' lives, each of them agreed that "We never had a lot of what you'd call material wealth, but we always had plenty to eat and clothes to wear and we were raised in a home that was filled with love and warmth, and we were taught right from wrong - We 10 children naturally had our differences - every family does - but Mama saw to it that everybody got their differences settled and 'ironed out' - and that we all got together on their birthdays and Christmas. That was two days out of the year we were all together."

I could quickly tell from my conversation with Willie Mae and Mary Jo that they were indeed reared in a home filled with love for one another, parents and God, for it was evident in the things they said and how they acted toward their parents.

Miss Lilliar and Mr. David won't ever have any buildings, monuments, statues, etc., named after them, as most of us won't, but be assured it is folks like them who have made America what it is - good, honest, hard-working, God-fearing people who took care of their own and minded their own business - in a nutshell, the "salt of the earth."

I hope you enjoyed meeting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hartley through their daughters.
